

§44-A. Walkaround inspections

A representative of the employer and an authorized employee representative must be given an opportunity to accompany the director or the director's authorized agent during the physical inspection of the workplace of an employer, subject to this section, for the purpose of aiding that inspection. When there is no authorized employee representative, the director or the director's authorized agent shall consult with a reasonable number of employees concerning matters of safety in the workplace. The employee representative may not lose any privilege or compensation during or because of the employee representative's attendance in any such inspection. [RR 2023, c. 2, Pt. E, §2 (COR).]

SECTION HISTORY

PL 1975, c. 519, §5 (NEW). RR 2023, c. 2, Pt. E, §2 (COR).

The State of Maine claims a copyright in its codified statutes. If you intend to republish this material, we require that you include the following disclaimer in your publication:

All copyrights and other rights to statutory text are reserved by the State of Maine. The text included in this publication reflects changes made through the Second Regular Session of the 131st Legislature and is current through October 15, 2024. The text is subject to change without notice. It is a version that has not been officially certified by the Secretary of State. Refer to the Maine Revised Statutes Annotated and supplements for certified text.

The Office of the Revisor of Statutes also requests that you send us one copy of any statutory publication you may produce. Our goal is not to restrict publishing activity, but to keep track of who is publishing what, to identify any needless duplication and to preserve the State's copyright rights.

PLEASE NOTE: The Revisor's Office cannot perform research for or provide legal advice or interpretation of Maine law to the public. If you need legal assistance, please contact a qualified attorney.