

§937. Procedure in arbitration

The board may hear grievance arbitration matters referred to it pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement. It may hear any labor dispute jointly referred to it for resolution by arbitration by the representatives of management and labor. In cases of arbitration, the parties concerned must submit in writing to the board the matters that they mutually agree to submit to arbitration and such other details pertinent to the issues involved as they may agree upon. When the matter is submitted to arbitration by the board, the board shall investigate the matter in controversy, shall hear all interested persons who come before it and shall make an award and written opinion, which must be published by the chair of the board and is binding on the parties who join in the agreement. [RR 2023, c. 2, Pt. E, §45 (COR).]

The board may, at any time in the arbitration process, seek a stipulated settlement of the matter submitted to it for resolution provided that settlement is approved by the parties to the dispute. Except as provided in section 972, arbitration proceedings shall be subject to the review provisions of the Uniform Arbitration Act, Title 14, chapter 706. [PL 1985, c. 294, §§ 2 and 3 (NEW).]
