§1025. Purchase of stock by fiduciaries; authority and restrictions

1. Investment in shares of stock. State banks with trust powers, trust companies and national banks with trust powers located in this State, acting in a fiduciary capacity and for true fiduciary purposes, either alone or with one or more individual cofiduciaries, may, if exercising the care of a prudent investor and with the consent of such individual cofiduciary or cofiduciaries, if any, invest and reinvest funds held in such fiduciary capacity in the shares of stock of a mutual trust investment company except where the will, trust indenture or other instrument under which such fiduciary is acting prohibits such investment. No investment in the stock of a mutual trust investment company may be made by any bank or trust company which operates its own common trust fund under the laws of this State. The stock shall not be subject to Title 32, chapter 13.

[PL 1975, c. 500, §1 (NEW).]

2. Limitation. No funds of any estate, trust or fund shall be invested in the stock of a mutual trust investment company in an amount which would result in any bank or trust company having an aggregate holding in excess of 25% of the total issued and outstanding stock of such mutual trust investment company, as increased by the amount of the proposed investment. In the event that by reason of reduction of the holdings of stock by other banks or trust companies, mergers of banks or trust companies, or for other reasons, the aggregate holding of stock in the mutual trust investment company by any bank or trust company shall become greater than 25% of the total issued and outstanding stock, such bank or trust company may retain the stock then held by it but may not make further investments in such stock until its aggregate holdings have become less than such 25%.

[PL 1975, c. 500, §1 (NEW).]

3. Responsibility. A mutual trust investment company shall be permitted to rely on the written statement of any bank or trust company purchasing its stock that the purchase complies with the foregoing requirements, except that the mutual trust investment company shall be responsible to see that the limit on the holding of stock by any one bank or trust company as provided in subsection 2 is not exceeded.

[PL 1975, c. 500, §1 (NEW).]

1. Rules and regulations. The superintendent shall have authority to adopt and issue regulations to govern the conduct and management of all mutual trust investment companies formed pursuant to this chapter, and to prescribe, among other things:

B. The methods and standards to be employed in establishing the value of the shares of stock in the mutual trust investment company and of its assets; and [PL 1975, c. 500, §1 (NEW).]

C. The procedure to be followed in the sale and redemption of its stock. [PL 1975, c. 500, §1 (NEW).]

[PL 1975, c. 500, §1 (NEW).]

2. Examination. The superintendent shall at least once in each calendar year, and whenever the superintendent deems it necessary or expedient, examine every such mutual trust investment company. On every such examination of a mutual trust investment company, the superintendent shall make inquiry as to its financial condition, the policies of its management, whether it is complying with the laws of this State and such other matters as the superintendent may prescribe. The reasonable expenses of each examination of a mutual trust investment company pursuant to this section must be charged to the company in accordance with the provision of section 214.

[RR 2009, c. 2, §9 (COR).]

3. Power and authority. In the enforcement of this chapter and the fulfillment of his responsibilities hereunder, the superintendent shall have the same power and authority over and with respect to mutual trust investment companies and their directors, officers and employees, including the power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records, documents and testimony, the power to require the submission to him of reports and information in such form and at such times as he may prescribe, the power to direct the discontinuation of any practice which he may consider illegal, unauthorized or unsafe; and all other powers and authorities, whether or not specifically mentioned herein, as are given the superintendent by the laws of this State with respect to financial institutions in the same manner and with like effect as if mutual trust investment companies were expressly named therein.
