

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTIETH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
February 8, 2001

Senate called to order by President Michael H. Michaud of Penobscot County.

Prayer by Reverend Sylvanus Jackson of the Randolph East Pittston United Methodist Church.

REVEREND JACKSON: I greet you all and may God bless you. I have special greetings for my Senator, Sharon Treat, and I wish you all God's blessings. I'll read a passage from the Scripture to hear some of the reasons why I am here, why we ought to pray for people in high positions and Senators and all.

First of all then, I urge that petitions, prayers, requests and thanksgiving be offered to God for all people, for kings and all others who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceful life with all reverence to God and with proper conduct. This is good and it pleases God, our Savior, who wants everyone to be saved and to come to know the truth. We are instructed to offer prayers for everyone. Why are we to do this? God desires that everybody should be saved and everybody should enjoy the benefits of God's blessings. Why authority? Why people in high positions? Because on their shoulders rests the responsibility of executing law and order and of making the people's lives better. Then I can say without hesitation that you people in this hall and others are doing a pretty good job because when you consider all what we hear around the nation, Maine is comparatively tranquil and peaceful. You do all you can to make the lives of your citizens better. Senators get in touch with their people and hear their complaints and try to do what they can to solve some of the problems. I'm, therefore, praying to God for you. You are faced with tough decisions you have to make, decisions that may not please everybody, but decisions that you think are right for the good and peace of the state. I pray that God bless you in this endeavor. I pray that you continue your good work so that your decisions may be honorable and worthy of respect. May God bless you and grant you all wisdom and courage to carry out this honorable and arduous task. Let us pray.

Oh God, I pray for these, your servants, Senators who are charged with the governance of our State of Maine. I thank you for their lives, for guiding them and for giving them this great responsibility to lead our state in a way that will make the lives of citizens even better. Make our state prosperous so that we can do more for the unfortunate children, for the poor and hungry, and the unemployed and all those in need. May their decisions come from Your wisdom and from Your grace, oh God, so that they may do what is right for the peace and good of our state and all its citizens. Amen.

Doctor of the day, Harry W. Grimmnitz M.D., Augusta.

SUBJ: Tax Incidence

It is my pleasure to forward for your information a copy of a report pursuant to statute which has been forwarded to the Joint Standing Committee on Taxation. The Department's ability to produce such an in-depth analysis is due to in large part to the Legislature's support for our increased automation and econometric modeling. Maine, I believe, is one of only two states able to analyze Tax Incidence at this level. While this is an imperfect science, we believe this to be an invaluable asset to the Legislative and Executive branches in making policy decisions.

Your questions are encouraged.

Thank you.
