

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTIETH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
February 15, 2001

Senate called to order by President Michael H. Michaud of Penobscot County.

Prayer by Chaplain Scott Dow of Augusta, Maine.

CHAPLAIN DOW: Let us be in the spirit of prayer. Just and merciful God, today we meet as a body to deliberate the concerns of the citizens of Maine. We ask to be aware of Your presence and influence in our individual minds and hearts and in the interactions between us and in our collective service to the people who depend on us to legislate wisely. Some of our actions may effect the future well-being of all the people of our state. Some may touch only a few individuals. Some of our decisions may effect the world around us. Others will touch the innermost beings of Maine people. Help us to serve each concern with appropriate care. Together we commit ourselves to offer the best that we are to the awesome responsibilities entrusted to us. We commit ourselves to trust the wisdom You give us above the influences of politics, above the influences of lobbyists, and above the influences from the media. We commit ourselves to speak and vote upholding our highest ideals. We are grateful for this opportunity. Amen.

Doctor of the day, Jacob W. Gerritsen M.D., Camden.

Reading of the Journal of Tuesday, February 13, 2001.

Augusta, Maine 04333

The Honorable Michael V. Saxl
Speaker of the House
Maine House of Representatives
SHS #2
Augusta, Maine 04333

Dear President Michaud and Speaker Saxl:

The Maine Millennium Commission on Hunger and Food Security herein submits an interim report to the 120th Maine Legislature concerning its findings and recommendations to date. The Commission is charged by the Legislature to finish its work by the end of 2001.

At this time there are many proposals under consideration by the Commission. However, several proposals offer clear, straightforward and timely actions that will produce valuable results for those who are hungry or at risk of hunger in Maine. This interim report presents those recommendations at this time and urges swift action to implement them.

The commission has focused, as is required by Resolve, upon those actions that will lead to ending hunger and achieve food security in Maine, not merely alleviating hunger by providing services that fill gaps. As such, much attention has been given to the circumstances and conditions that keep people from being food secure.

However, members are also aware that there is no simple solution and that hunger will not be ended overnight. Emergency aid services are essential and will no doubt be needed for many years to come to deal with emergency situations. Therefore, the recommendations proposed herein include both fundamental and structural changes as well as ways of improving services that are intended to alleviate temporary conditions.

Sincerely,

S/Paul C. Christian
Chair

LABOR and ordered printed.)

(In Senate, January 16, 2001, REFERRED to the Committee on
STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT and ordered printed, in NON-CONCURRENCE.)

(In House, January 18, 2001, that Body ADHERED.)

Senator MARTIN of Aroostook moved the Senate INSIST.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Hancock, Senator Goldthwait.

Senator GOLDTHWAIT: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. This bill is an issue that would move to equalize the allowable legislative leave for all members serving in the State Legislature. Right now teachers are able to take an unlimited number of terms on leave and anyone else is permitted one term only. The issue before us today is not to debate the merits of the bill, but simply to decide on referencing. To decide the fate of this bill on a referencing decision seems, to me, to be particularly inappropriate because a number of members of this and the other body may well be advantaged by this. To kill this bill without the benefit of a public debate seems to me inappropriate. I hope you will join me in opposing the pending motion.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Aroostook, Senator Martin.

Senator MARTIN: Mr. President and members of the Senate, let me just say that this bill has been around since I can remember. It is certainly not a new issue and it is one which has always raised various numbers of issues. I just think we can save everyone time by dealing with it now. It's not the first time that we've done this and I think that there is no reason for it to continue. I certainly hope that you will vote to Insist.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes President Pro Tem Bennett of Oxford.

President Pro Tem BENNETT: Thank you, Mr. President and fellow members of the Senate. I believe that this is the first time this bill or idea has been brought before this Senate and this Legislature, so I will respectfully disagree with the Senator from Aroostook, Senator Martin. I think that a dangerous precedence will be established if we decide to kill bills on reference. One of the hallmarks of this body, this Legislature and our whole system here is something that has been around longer than this bill or this idea has been before the legislature, that is the notion that bills get public hearings. For that reason, I will not vote to Insist and in fact will move to Recede and Concur.

President Pro Tem BENNETT of Oxford moved the Senate RECEDE and CONCUR.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Aroostook, Senator Martin.

Senator MARTIN: Mr. President, members of the Senate, let me just point out that this bill, in fact, was heard by this legislature last year. It was before the legislature during the last session. It was subsequently defeated. It actually has been around a number of years before that. In addition, as a matter of fact, in terms of what we do and not do, just earlier today we voted to Insist on another matter which will kill an item on the calendar.

The Chair ordered a Division. 14 Senators having voted in the affirmative and 13 Senators having voted in the negative, the motion by President Pro Tem BENNETT of Oxford to RECEDE and CONCUR, PREVAILED.

Out of order and under suspension of the Rules, the Senate considered the following:
