

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
April 5, 2005

Senate called to order by President Beth Edmonds of Cumberland County.

Prayer by Reverend Dr. Mark Doty of the Hammond Street
Congregational Church, UCC of Bangor.

REVEREND DOTY: Let us pray. Oh Holy One, as we celebrate the coming of spring, we come into Your presence this day powerfully aware of the goodness of Your creation and out debt to you. Most loving God, You have granted to us dominion of the world You have made. Teach us again to be responsible stewards of all that You have entrusted to us. We lift up before You, oh God, the people of this Senate. We are deeply grateful for their willingness to be public servants, for their desire to set before the people of Maine lives of integrity and strength of character. We thank these women and men for modeling the inclusiveness, which comes with diversity, which is truly celebrated. Most loving God, we pray that You might grant to these Senators and those who assist them strength of mind, courage of conviction, and wisdom to discern the correct path.
Give them grace this day to do the work You would have them do and may their labors be accomplished with joyful, caring spirits.
All this we ask and pray in Your name. Amen.

Doctor of the day, Dr. Buell Miller of Richmond.

Reading of the Journal of Monday, April 4, 2005.

Joint Order

The following Joint Order:

H.P. 1089

ORDERED, the Senate concurring, that the Study Commission on Cumberland County Regionalization is established as follows.

1. Study Commission on Cumberland County Regionalization established. The Study Commission on Cumberland County Regionalization, referred to in this order as "the study commission," is established to study and make recommendations on regional delivery of services in Cumberland County.

2. Membership. The study commission consists of the following 6 members:

A. Two members of the Senate from Cumberland County, appointed by the President of the Senate, including one from each major political party; and

B. Four members of the House of Representatives from Cumberland County, appointed by the Speaker of the House, including 2 from each major political party.

3. Study commission cochairs. The first-named Senator is the Senate chair of the study commission and the first-named member of the House is the House chair of the study commission.

4. Appointments; convening of study commission. All appointments must be made no later than 30 days following passage of this order. The appointing authorities shall notify the Executive Director of the Legislative Council once all appointments have been made. When the appointment of all members has been completed, the chairs of the study commission shall call and convene the first meeting of the study commission, which may be no later than September 15, 2005.

5. Duties. The study commission:

A. Shall undertake a regionalization study with regard to 4 areas: water districts, waste systems, bus and transportation systems and emergency services dispatch systems;

B. Shall include all public and quasi-public entities and nonprofit corporations formed pursuant to law currently providing services in Cumberland County in the 4 areas to be studied;

C. Shall consider establishing county departments for water districts, regional waste systems and bus and transportation systems and a regional dispatch center within the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office and shall consider transferring to the county the applicable assets and debts associated with the delivery of these services to the county's communities;

D. Shall evaluate the Portland Water District and other water districts within the county and the private and special and public laws applicable to water districts. The study commission shall propose establishing a county water district as a department of county government with governance by a board of trustees appointed by the county commissioners;

E. Shall evaluate existing regional waste systems that serve Cumberland County and York County and all laws applicable to waste systems, including the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 38, section 1304-B and the Maine Refuse Disposal District Enabling Act. The study commission shall propose establishing a county waste management authority as a department of county government with governance provided by a board of trustees appointed by the county commissioners;

F. Shall evaluate the Greater Portland Transit District, the South Portland Bus Service, the Regional Transportation Program and the Casco Bay Island Transit District and all laws pertinent to buses and transportation. The study commission shall propose establishing a bus and transportation systems agency as a department of county government with governance provided by a board of trustees appointed by the county commissioners; and

G. Shall evaluate the existing dispatch centers for emergency services. The study commission shall propose establishing a regional dispatch center or centers as a division of the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office.

6. Staff assistance. The Legislative Council shall provide necessary staffing services to the study commission.

7. Compensation. Legislative members of the study commission are entitled to receive the legislative per diem and reimbursement for travel and other necessary expenses related to their attendance at authorized meetings of the study commission.

8. Report. No later than January 1, 2006, the study commission shall submit a report that includes its findings and recommendations, including suggested legislation, for presentation to the Joint Standing Committee on State and Local Government and the Legislative Council. The study commission is not authorized to introduce legislation. Following receipt and review of the report, the Joint Standing Committee on State and Local Government may report out legislation to the Second Regular Session of the 122nd Legislature.

9. Extension. If the study commission requires a limited extension of time to complete its study and make its report, it may apply to the Legislative Council, which may grant an extension. Upon submission of its required report, the study commission terminates.

10. Budget. The chairs of the study commission, with assistance from the study commission staff, shall administer the study commission's budget. Within 10 days after its first meeting, the study commission shall present a work plan and proposed budget to the Legislative Council for its approval. The study commission may not incur expenses that would result in the study commission's exceeding its approved budget. Upon request from the study commission, the Executive Director of the Legislative Council shall promptly provide the study commission chairs and staff with a status report on the study commission's budget, expenditures incurred and paid and available funds.

Comes from the House, READ and REFERRED to the Committee on STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

READ.

On motion by Senator SCHNEIDER of Penobscot, TABLED until Later in Today's Session, pending PASSAGE, in NON-CONCURRENCE.

(In House, March 29, 2005, the Majority OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED Report READ and ACCEPTED and the Bill PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-75).)

(In Senate, March 30, 2005, Reports READ.)

Senator PERRY of Penobscot moved the Senate ACCEPT the Minority OUGHT NOT TO PASS Report, in NON-CONCURRENCE.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Perry.

Senator PERRY: Thank you, Madame President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I hope you will follow my lead and accept the Ought Not to Pass Report on L.D. 593. An Act to Alter Trade-In Allowances Regarding Motor Homes. Basically, what it is that when you trade your car in at a dealership, you receive a trade-in tax credit for the value of that traded-in vehicle. So if you buy a $20,000 car with a $10,000 trade-in, you pay sales tax on $10,000. It's the same with motor homes and campers. However, where the disparity is when if you trade a pop-up camper for a fifth wheel, or a fifth wheel for a motor home, where you are moving between classes, there is no trade-in credit. This bill would seek to extend the trade-in credit regardless of what category you trade-in from or two. I have, I think, the biggest motor home dealer in the state in my district. I see the guy on a regular basis. He's never addressed this with me. Doesn't seem to be an issue. The majority report, I think, wants to address an inconsistency, as they see it, in Maine law. I would argue that the only thing consistent about our tax code is the inconsistencies. If we address them one at a time, we would adjourn in October or November. I there may be a way to address this. I don't think it's on this freestanding bill. It's not an issue that anyone's ever brought to my attention, including the dealer. I hope we will kill this bill. Thank you.
