

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
April 24, 2007

Senate called to order by President Beth Edmonds of Cumberland County.

Prayer by Pastor Edward Hatch of Palermo Christian Church.

PASTOR HATCH: I want to thank you for the opportunity to come before you and to say the prayer today. My daughter treated my wife and I to an opportunity to see the movie 'Amazing Grace' last night. It was the story of William Wilberforce, who was instrumental in stopping the slave trade in England in the late 1800's. I'd encourage any of you to see it if you get a chance to. It was quite an amazing movie. As I watched that and as I was on my way home from Rockland, I remembered that I was going to be before you folks and it gave me a greater appreciation for the work that you are doing. You are trying to balance the needs and rights of the citizens of the State of Maine and that balancing act, I'm sure, for many of you is very difficult. What Mr. Wilberforce impressed upon me is that there are times that you cannot balance. There are things that are right and things that are wrong. He fought a long and very courageous battle because he knew that slavery was wrong. It was amazing, prompted in a large part by his Christian faith and also the duty he felt towards other people. I was just very much impressed with that and would like to encourage you, as you are doing what you're doing today, to consider that balancing act and also to consider the fact that there are things that are right and things that are wrong and you need to stand up for what is right. Let us bow for prayer.

Our Heavenly Father, we are thankful today for the privilege that we have to be able to be used to help other people. I'm thankful for each one of the men and women in this room who are giving of their time and energies and efforts to serve the people of the State of Maine. I also want to say a special prayer for our troops from Maine who are overseas in Iraq and Afghanistan and other places, whose lives are in danger today, that You would give them safety and that You would help their families who are here at home as well. I'm reminded especially of the family of Aron Peaslee, who lost his life in defense of our freedoms. We pray for a special comfort for his family. We are just thankful, God, for the opportunities we have today. I pray that You will help each one here do what is right in Your eyes and that You will give them the strength and wisdom and discernment that they need. I ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Elizabeth M. Schneider of Penobscot County.

Reading of the Journal of Wednesday, April 11, 2007.

The Chair noted the absence of the Senator from Kennebec, Senator MARRACHÉ and further excused the same Senator from today's Roll Call votes.

ORDERS

Joint Order

The 92nd Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide. On April 24, 1915, a campaign was launched by the Turkish regime of the Ottoman Empire against the Armenian people, resulting in the death of more than 1.5 million Armenians. Some of the survivors settled in the State of Maine and their heirs have made significant contributions to the State. We join our citizens of Armenian heritage on April 24th in remembering this event, and we express our deepest sympathy for the families of those who perished;

SLS 142

Sponsored by Senator BRANNIGAN of Cumberland.
Cosponsored by Senator: STRIMLING of Cumberland,
Representatives: ADAMS of Portland, BRAUTIGAM of Falmouth,
Speaker CUMMINGS of Portland, HARLOW of Portland,
HASKELL of Portland, HINCK of Portland, MARLEY of Portland, RAND of Portland.

READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Brannigan.

Senator BRANNIGAN: Thank you, Madame President. I am honored to take this role of honoring this group of people. It is a remembering of a slaughter 92 years ago. Since then, and way before then, we had many people who were slaughtered. We call it genocide. We remember the holocaust. Now we have the wonderful term 'ethnic cleansing'. That's what this would have been called had we had that term years ago. We have it going on today. I listened to public radio this morning about what's going on in the Sudan, the Darfur region. Slaughter. Killings. Ethnic cleansing. The difference here, I think, is that the people who were slaughtered in the ethnic cleansing of the Armenian people 92 years ago have people here who are still remembering. We know with the holocaust the Jewish people are still remembering. I fear that with the slaughters that are going on in various parts of the world, whether it's the Toutsies, the Serbs, or the people that are meeting terrible times in Afghanistan, I wonder if there will be people who will have the fortitude or the ability to come together and remember as these folks here today are remembering. Remembering is very important for all groups, individuals, who die. I hope that the genocides and ethnic cleansings will stop. There is no sign of that. The human race is in disgrace. Wonderfully, there is good and they are remembering. I hope that they will continue and I hope that we will honor those who remember. Thank you, Madame President.

PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Gerard Kiladjian, Andrea Malconian, John Malconian, Peter Drivas, Delores Drivas, Valerie Kazarian, Jean Kazarian, Laura Tevanian-Labbe, and Marian Agazarian. Would they please rise and accept the greetings and appreciation of the Maine Senate.

Joint Resolutions in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

Robert P. Cammack, of Augusta, who for 37 years guided thousands of people annually around the State Capitol as the tour guide for the building. Mr. Cammack was born in Glendale, California and was a World War II veteran, serving in North Africa as a flight engineer in the United States Navy. He was a beloved gentleman who possessed such a great love and respect for the Capitol building and the institution. His knowledge and personality made him a wonderful success as tour guide. The Maine State Museum worked to preserve some of the memory and charm of Mr. Cammack by videotaping the tour for the benefit of future guides. We gratefully acknowledge his longtime dedicated service to the State of Maine. He will be greatly missed and long remembered by his loving family and his many friends;

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Mitchell.

Senator MITCHELL: Thank you, Madame President and colleagues of the Senate. For 37 years Bob Cammack taught Maine school children the beauty and the value of the State House and this complex. No one. No Senator. No Governor. No Representative has left a more lasting legacy than this man who loved the institution so very much. I think that everybody who came in contact with him has a deeper appreciation for the history of Maine and all that it portrays. The images that he has given to us will stay forever. There is not one corner of this building that he could not tell you a wonderful story about. It is with great honor, and I think that the family should know, to see this many people signing onto a Joint Resolution, that I am but one voice who reflects the feelings of the entire Maine Legislature. I would like to say how pleased we are to have members of his family with us today, and I know the President will recognize them later. We also know how much they contributed to his happy, cheerful face around the State House. Today we have with us his wife, Corey; his daughter, Patsy Letourneau, and her husband, Rob; and his stepson, Sean Watson. It was a family love affair with the State of Maine. We are so grateful that we had an opportunity to know Robert Cammack.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Rotundo.

Senator ROTUNDO: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. I just wanted to rise to add my appreciation to the words that have already been spoken about the life and work of Mr. Cammack. He was always gracious and always eager to share whatever he knew with others. He was one of the great treasures of the State of Maine. I will miss him very much and will always treasure the great contributions that he made to the people of Maine. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Waldo, Senator Weston.

Senator WESTON: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. Bob's face is the one I think most people remember when they think of this building. I have many images of him telling stories, pointing out particular little corners, or that special little thing that someone, especially the younger students, might miss. We started out by my tagging along with him as he gave tours and then we started sharing, each doing a little part. As the years passed, some days when he was really tired, I'd say, 'You know, Bob, I can handle this one if you want to take a break.' He would always come and give his greetings to the kids and then slip away for a little bit and come back for the end. I learned a lot from him and the joy that I have when I go around this building and share with the students is something that came directly from him. I thank him for that.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Arostook, Senator Martin.

Senator MARTIN: Thank you, Madame President and members of the Senate. Bob was hired when I became the Minority Floor Leader in 1970 or thereabouts. From that day he was an institution around this building. For all of us who actually made him work he was more than happy to provide tours for all the people that we brought to this building. I will never forget the times when young children would be here, and having been told by their teachers that there were creatures that were found in the floors, how he would go around showing those locations around the State House. They would leave and if I ended up going back to the school where those students came from they didn't remember me or cared about anything else about the building, it was what Bob had showed them going through the building. To this day, some have come back 20 years later and pointed out where Bob had shown them what was on the floor of the State House. We will miss him, but in many ways he will still be around.

ADOPTED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes in the rear of the Chamber the family of Bob Cammack. Would they please rise and receive the greetings of the Maine Senate.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

The Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later (3/20/07) Assigned matter:

JOINT ORDER - To Create the Joint Select Committee on Prosperity

H.P. 1018

Tabled - March 20, 2007, by Senator MITCHELL of Kennebec

Pending - PASSAGE

(In House, March 15, 2007, READ and PASSED AS AMENDED BY HOUSE AMENDMENT "A" (H-22).)

On motion by Senator MITCHELL of Kennebec, Senate Amendment "C" (S-19) READ and ADOPTED.

PASSED AS AMENDED BY SENATE AMENDMENT "C" (S-19), in NON-CONCURRENCE.

On motion by Senator DIAMOND of Cumberland, the Senate RECONSIDERED whereby the Bill was PASSED AS AMENDED BY SENATE AMENDMENT "C" (S-19), in NON-CONCURRENCE.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Diamond.

Senator DIAMOND: Thank you, Madame President, men and women of the Senate. You caught me a little off guard. I wasn't prepared to have this come up today. I thought it wasn't going to, but here we are.

This Joint Order to create the Prosperity Committee, in my opinion, is a bad idea. It came rolling out of the other end of the hall with a big head of steam. It's now limping in through the doors of this Body. I think the concern I have about this is that it really undermines our legislative committee system. That's my primary concern. It seems to me that every time that we want to have something very important discussed we create a new committee or a special task force. That's what we've done here.

I'm a traditionalist when it comes to this institution. Does that mean I don't like new ideas? Yes, that's what it means. If they are good new ideas, I think it's fine. This does weaken our system. We already have a committee to discuss prosperity, to discuss business, to discuss research, and to discuss economic development. This bill has been amended down to the point where it is going to be a summer study. Evidently, it's going to be ending in January. If we are going to have a study committee we have a Joint Standing Committee already prepared and standing to do that. Who's going to be on this study committee? Who's going to do it? I would hope it's going to include people like the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bryant, who is involved with fish and wildlife. I hope it's going to include the junior Senator from Aroostook, Senator Sherman, who served in both Bodies and on the Agriculture Committee. Agriculture certainly has to be a part of this. It definitely has to include the Senator from Somerset, Senator Mills, because if you've run for Governor you have had the ultimate education for learning about this state. It also should include the two former Speakers of the other Body. They have almost 70 years of experience. They certainly should be a part of this. The point is that if you look around this Chamber there are so many folks that should be on that study committee. Then we look at the good Senator from Cumberland, Senator Bromley, who is the Senate Chair of the Business, Research, and Economic Development Committee. I contend that this committee can do the job. I think what we are doing here is making the study committees the Junior Varsity. When something important comes along, we then reach out for the Varsity. To me, that really does undercut our committee system.

I know skids are pretty well greased on this thing. I haven't been lobbying for it other than in my caucus. I've simply said that I think it is a bad idea for the institution. I think somebody needs to stand up and say it's a bad idea for the institution. That's my pitch. I think that we have a committee, we have a situation in this institution, that can deal with prosperity. We should let them do their work. If this study committee truly is going to end in January, then we have a committee that could work this summer and fall. Thank you, Madame President.

On further motion by same Senator, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Aroostook, Senator Martin.

Senator MARTIN: Thank you, Madame President and members of the Senate. Some of you know that I have not been particularly favorable to this proposal. I eventually came around to support it only because it was going to be a summer project and not something that will begin tomorrow morning. As I was thinking about why I was opposing it, it's probably because of its source.

The people behind the Brookings Institute, or whatever they want to call themselves, all of a sudden recommending all these bonds and all these things that we ought to be doing. The chief spokesperson singularly was responsible for increasing the cost of the Maine Turnpike construction about $35 million to $45 million. Some of you may remember. There was a bill before the legislature. We ended up going to the voters. You may remember all the extra things that had to be done and the expansion was exactly where it was originally planned. It went exactly where it was going to go. So many years later, the cost of construction had gone through the roof.

That is what brings me to the original opposition, not only to the original order but to the original package that is still being lobbied around this state with dollars and has absolutely no clue of what we do here or why. I only begrudgingly came to support what we have before us now because it will clearly be dying in December and it will begin after we adjourn. That is the only reason why I am now voting for it. I wanted you to know what got me going in the first place.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Passage as Amended by Senate Amendment "C" (S-19, in Non-Concurrence. A Roll Call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.
