REVEREND SMITH: Faithful God, we bow before You this day and we pray that we will carry out the tasks for which we have been elected to the best of our ability. May we all simply, in this place, get along together, talk, discuss, have different views, and then vote and may be all grow better and stronger in the process. ORDERS

Joint Order

The Madison Area Memorial High School Unified Basketball Team, which won the Unified Basketball State Championship. Members of the team include Christian Cabrera, Ashley Carrier, Jennifer Dean, Brad Peters, Cameron Ellis, Matthew Estes, Joseph Hume, Jasmine Jewell, Austin Mercier, Roger Picard, Kirsty Richardson and Scott Sawtelle and coaches Josh Bishop and Ted Brown. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; SLS 458

Sponsored by Senator FARRIN of Somerset. Cosponsored by Representatives: AUSTIN of Skowhegan, CURTIS of Madison.

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Somerset, Senator Farrin.

Senator FARRIN: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it is an honor to rise and recognize Madison Area Memorial High School's Unified Basketball Team and their coaches. For those unfamiliar with unified basketball, it's an opportunity for students with developmental disabilities to be the athletes and for students without disabilities to be their partners on the court. Three athletes and two partners work together on the court at all times. The sport has grown significantly in Maine over the last few years. In 2015 there were 17 teams across the state. Now there are 59 and I wouldn't be surprised if we didn't see that number growing in the coming years. This year marked the fifth annual Unified Basketball Championship and it was one to remember. With less than a minute to go the game was tied up between Madison and Westbrook. Nearly 500 people were on the edge of their seats as they waited to see who would be this year's State Champions. I am pleased to report that Madison came home with the Gold Ball. This team worked so hard this season, winning 58-53 in the semi-final game over the Bangor-Hamden team and winning the State Championship 58-53. What makes this an even more special accomplishment is that, with Madison's rich basketball tradition, this team brought the first ever Gold Ball home to the school. I am honored to join students, athletes, community members in congratulating this team for their huge win. Each member of this team, the coaches, the mentors, and the athletes, should be extremely proud.

The Joint Order was PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair would like to recognize in the rear of the Chamber the Madison Area Memorial School Unified Basketball Team. Some of the members include Christian Cabrera, Ashley Carrier, Jennifer Dean, Brad Peters, Cameron Ellis, Matthew Estes, Joseph Hume, Jasmine Jewell, Austin Mercier, Roger Picard, Kirsty Richardson, and Scott Sawtelle, and coaches Josh Bishop and Ted Brown. Will they all please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine Senate.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Millett.

Senator MILLETT: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, the bill before us today received the support of the Maine School Boards Association, the Maine School Superintendents Association, and the Maine Education Association. I will remark that having all three of those bodies support a bill is worth noting. In addition, the Department of Education testified in support and said, 'We know that exclusionary disciplinary practices do not change negative behaviors in children but further alienates and disenfranchises students from their school community. Time out of the classroom places students further behind in their academics and leads to further acting out behaviors. We acknowledge the disproportionate ratio of disciplinary action taken against students who are impoverished, racially diverse, or identified with disabilities, and in fact that last group is the preponderance of those that receive these disciplinary actions. Disciplinary responses that develop natural accountability and increases the student's internal locus of control are more likely to change negative behaviors.' That's from the Department of Education. I ask that you follow my light. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Majority Ought to Pass as Amended Report. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Somerset, Senator Farrin.

Senator FARRIN: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise today to speak on the bill before us. Let me say that I believe L.D. 944 is specifically targeting a school in my district, Skowhegan Area High School, which I'm a proud 1982 graduate of. To give you some of the history, Skowhegan Area High School hasn't had a school mascot since 2001. On March 7th of this year, nearly two months ago, the school board voted to remove the Indian name from the high school. Despite these actions, through local control, some individuals still feel that this legislation is necessary. Some have stated that this is a civil rights issue but the fact of the matter is this legislation was poorly thought out and addresses one group. During the public hearing and work sessions questions about the constitutionality of the bill were asked. Without addressing these questions now, I believe, passing this legislation will open up the State of Maine to legal challenges down the road. While concerned about those aspects, my greatest concern is that this bill would take away local control. I feel it's important for local communities and school boards to have meaningful conversations so that thoughtful decision making can take place. Every community and school is different. Mine is no exception. Unfortunately it seems that the bill before us would take away local control and the opportunity for things to occur in the future as it shifts that authority to the State. I've heard from countless individuals on both sides of this issue, as I'm sure many of you have. What you haven't experienced is the damage and decisiveness this controversy has caused in my community. While I know that in time our community will heal, I respectfully ask that you let us do so without Augusta's involvement. In closing, I'd like to share an excerpt from the Department of Education's testimony. It stated: 'The Department recognizes the authority of local school boards to develop policies and procedures that reflect community sentiment and, thus, we stop short of suggesting a state-wide ban.' Just as DOE pointed it out, it seems clear to me that supporting this ban would take away that authority. Please let communities and school boards - and just so you know the citizens of the district have come forward and asked for a people's referendum on this and the school board voted no. The school board has stuck to their points and, for those that feel this legislation is important, the school board has done the right thing, moving things forward in it's time for us to heal without Augusta's involvement and I'd ask all of you to follow my light. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Carson.

Senator CARSON: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it had not been my intention to rise and speak to this issue today but an e-mail came in last night about 10 o'clock from a woman named Jennifer Dorman who has a master's in education, has taught for 26 years in Skowhegan schools, and was Maine's 2015 Teacher of the Year. I don't get to my e-mail as often as I should but I wanted to share this with all of you for perspective from a Teacher of the Year who has taught for more than a quarter of a century in Skowhegan. I quote: 'I don't need to explain the divisiveness of the debate over our mascot. I don't need to explain the divisiveness the debate over our mascot has caused. I've been witness to it for the past four years. Recently I allowed students to choose the argument for and against the retirement of the Indian mascot for an argument essay. You will not be surprised that opinions were split down the middle with half of the class against retiring the Indian mascot and half of the class in favor of retiring the mascot. I was not surprised either. However a surprise arrived in my classroom a few weeks later when one student asked if we could brainstorm possible new mascot names. This same student had argued against retirement of our mascot. When I asked him about his change of heart he said, 'I think we need a mascot that we can all stand behind and one that we can stop fighting over.' Continuing with Ms. Dorman's letter: 'I shared his brief story because it points out an aspect of this argument that has been missing as we discuss the use of Native American mascots. Some see it as a civil rights issue and some do not because L.D. 944 does not mention other races or minority groups. Regardless, I have not heard many people for or against the bill voice the fact that this is also an educational,' and she italicized educational, 'issue. It is about our students and not about local opinion. Public schools have the great responsibility to teach students empathy, critical thinking, tolerance, and citizenship. Schools are society's frontline agents for equity. When State policy cannot support the necessary foundation for equitable education, and instead places educational decisions about equity in the hands of local voices, schools, teachers, and students are in danger of falling prey to the loudest voices in town, even if those voices don't have the best interest of students and their education in mind.' She concludes: 'Skowhegan schools need your help. We need you to help us send the message that educational institutions won't support inequitable practices in our schools.' She closes: 'Please vote in favor of L.D. 944.' Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Libby.

Senator LIBBY: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I rise in support of the pending motion as a 2003 graduate of Skowhegan Area High School. Men and women of the Senate, we have four tribes that are represented here in Maine and a fifth tribe does not exist in the state of Maine anymore, and that's the Norridgewock Band of Abenaki Indians. Norridgewock and Skowhegan are two communities that exist on the Kennebec River and for 10,000 years a fairly large tribe had lived on the Kennebec until 1724 when, in the middle of a spat between English settlers and French missionaries, the hundreds of Norridgewock Indians were brutally massacred and don't exist anymore today. I hear from proponents of keeping the Indian mascot that the mascot serves to honor Maine's Native people but I know that many of the folks that are supporting preservation of the mascot have no idea of the slaughter that occurred in Norridgewock and Skowhegan just a few hundred years ago. I'd like to read to you just a little bit of that history. The raid was undertaken to check Abenaki power in the region and to limit Catholic proselytizing among the Abenaki, and thereby the perceived French influence, and to allow for the expansion of New England English settlements into Abenaki territory. Other motivations for this raid in 1724 on the Norridgewock Indians included a 100 pound scalp bounty placed on Catholic missionaries' heads and each one of the Native Americans who were living there. Casualties, depending on the sources consulted, vary, but by most accounts 80 Abenaki were killed in Norridgewock. Both English and French accounts agree that the raid was a surprise nighttime attack on a civilian target and they both also report that many of the dead were unarmed when they were killed and those massacred included many women and children. As a result of the raid, New Englanders flooded into the lower Kennebec region, establishing settlements there in the wake of the war and that's part of why we do not have Norridgewock Indian representatives in the Maine House of Representatives.

I think if we are to honor Maine's Indigenous people we could start by celebrating Indigenous People's Day at the next opportunity. I think we could join some of Maine's survivors from that attack in celebrating and honoring those who passed. We could join in celebrating and honoring those who were killed in that attack by visiting the site in Norridgewock for a celebration on the 22nd of August. I think if we wanted to honor Maine's Indigenous people we would be voting in favor of this bill, to finally put this issue to rest. So I would ask you to please consider these remarks and vote in favor of the pending motion. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Bellows.

Senator BELLOWS: Thank you, Mr. President. Honorable members of the Maine Senate, I rise to read the statement of Penobscot Nation Tribal Ambassador, Maulian Dana, and I quote from Ambassador Dana: 'I want to express my gratitude for giving time for a voice that represents not only my Nation but also a two decade long activism career that began when I was a teenager. I have a longstanding history with Indian mascots in Maine and have traveled the state speaking in schools and municipal groups to advocate and educate on the harm they cause through their promotion and perpetuation of outdated stereotypes and the silencing of actual Indigenous People. Indian mascots are denounced by various professional associations, including the American Psychological Association, because of the harm they cause for not just Indigenous students but all students. Also the National Congress of American Indians, which has a membership of over 500 Tribal Nations, has called for the end of their usage and conducted an in-depth study that found Indian mascots use a factor in high rates of hate crimes against American Indians and contributes to the overall oppression of our people and intergenerational trauma. Indian mascots reduce our race to a caricature. They marginalize our existence and history. They are a theft of our cultural identity. They dehumanize us and they promote tension between racial groups because when people see you as an object or something they can appropriate they're not seeing you as a human worthy of equality and respect. At 15 years old I saw the Skowhegan Indians basketball team take the floor in a tournament game and when the cheerleaders, players, and fans took part in wearing fake headdresses, fake war paint, and began doing mocking dances and chants I was sparked to make change in the world, to bring honor to these sacred cultural items and traditions that I was raised to revere and protect.

Every public school in Maine has made the decision to retire these harmful mascots. However making this move a State level is critically important in assuring that none of them are reinstated. Some may say that this is a local control issue but this is actually a civil rights issue and that supersedes local control. Your Indigenous constituents of Maine matter and our rights for fairness and equality matter. We are seeing a new dawn in Tribal/State relations and this sends a clear message of respect, honor, truth, and reconciliation. We are people. We do not want to be sports team mascots. There is no honor in forcing a group of people to go on with your assumption of their identity and mockery of their existence. While you may find some Tribal citizens that either don't care about mascots or approve of them, I would gently remind you that in the last case of mascot removal at Skowhegan all the Wabanaki Nations of Maine united in our request that they remove their Indian mascot. We made this request based not only on our personal feelings but also because of the research and factual evidence that proves the Indian mascots cause harm. We stand strong in this request and we ask this Body to pass this landmark legislation that would make Maine a leader in civil rights for Indigenous People. As a mother of two daughters that will be in high school, I work for these rights for them to attend schools and extracurricular activities where they're not discriminated against or have to see their sacred traditions stolen and degraded like I had seen so long ago. Identity is part of the roots we grow from and we can water these roots in a healthy way and make our whole state stronger for it. Thank you very much for considering this legislation. I hope you hear my voice in these words and see me as a person not a mascot.'

Those were the words of Penobscot Nation Tribal Ambassador Maulian Dana. I just want to add my husband was born in Skowhegan. He's a 1994 graduate of Skowhegan High School and he also provided a long statement, which I won't read in its entirety, but he did say: 'Growing up in Skowhegan we claim the legacy of Margaret Chase Smith as our own, knowing at some point in life, even when it's not easy, especially when it's not easy, we must all take a stand to do what's right.' Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Majority Ought to Pass as Amended Report. If you are in favor of accepting that report you will be voting yes. If you are opposed you will be voting no. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

Joint Resolution

The following Joint Resolution:

H.P. 1195

JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING APRIL 2019 AS SARCOIDOSIS AWARENESS MONTH

WHEREAS, sarcoidosis is a potentially debilitating and deadly multiorgan inflammatory disease that is estimated to affect 200,000 people in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the signs and symptoms of sarcoidosis vary widely depending on the person and organs affected and can include debilitating fatigue; shortness of breath; difficulties with balance and coordination; irregular heartbeat; visual problems, including blindness; pain affecting joints and muscles; weakness or numbness of limbs; skin rash and discoloration; mood disorders such as depression and anxiety; organ failure; and sleep difficulties; and

WHEREAS, sarcoidosis can affect anyone but is most common among adults between the ages of 20 and 40, with a higher incidence among African Americans; and

WHEREAS, research suggests the cause of sarcoidosis is a combination of genetic and environmental factors, but the exact cause and progression of the disease is still unknown; and

WHEREAS, sarcoidosis is a diagnosis of exclusion as there is no objective test, biomarker, known cause or cure; and

WHEREAS, volunteers, researchers, caregivers and medical professionals are working to improve the quality of life and prognosis of persons living with sarcoidosis and their families; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Legislature now assembled in the First Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to recognize April 2019 as Sarcoidosis Awareness Month.

Comes from the House, READ and ADOPTED.

The Joint Resolution was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Bellows.

Senator BELLOWS: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise in support of this Joint Resolution recognizing April 2019 as Sarcoidosis Awareness Month. I think it's so incredibly important. The patients that we recognized in the room and their spouses and family members are here to help raise awareness about Sarcoidosis and unite a movement to help patients everywhere. Just for your information, it's an inflammatory disease that can occur in any demographic, regardless of age, gender or race, and it often strikes people with a wide array of mysterious symptoms in the prime of their lives, between 20 and 40 years of age, occurring when an individual's immune system goes into overdrive and develops granulomas, tiny clumps of inflammatory cells in one or more organs of their body causing potentially permanent damage. The cause of this disease is unknown and the progression can vary widely, 90% of patients have lung involvement and spontaneous remission can occur. Some greats who have died from this disease are Bernie Mac and football star Reggie White. I would just say that there are certain things that we can do, and this Resolution is incredibly important in raising awareness, but those patient ambassadors and their families urge us to support Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program to support, at the federal level, funding for the NIH and FDA to support biosimilar and drug regulations and STEP therapy accepting drugs for secondary treatment opportunities, telemedicine expansion, increasing coverage to allow genetic sequencing for diagnosis, and stabilizing and strengthening the health insurance markets. So I just want to honor the patients and their families who are here today to help educate all of us about Sarcoidosis. It's an incredibly important act that we're taking today. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Dill.

Senator DILL: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I, too, want to rise and just point out the seriousness of this disease and certainly want to thank the folks that have come here today to actually point out how big of a problem this is. It's probably a little known problem to most of us but, if you know someone that is suffering from it, it's a very serious affliction and I would ask, please, that the Senate Secretary read the Joint Resolution. Thank you.

At the request of Senator DILL of Penobscot, the Joint Resolution was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Gratwick.

Senator GRATWICK: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen, I rise in support of this as well. Simply, in my prior life as a rheumatologist I dealt with a great number of people with Sarcoidosis. Pulmonologist and rheumatologists, as well as virtually all other medical specialists, have to deal with this condition. Very perplexing. I would note, however, the objective test is, indeed, a biopsy. There are ways that one can treat this, but I think this is entirely appropriate. Thank you, Mr. President.

The Joint Resolution was ADOPTED, in concurrence.

All matters thus acted upon were ordered sent down forthwith for concurrence.

Off Record Remarks

On motion by Senator LIBBY of Androscoggin, ADJOURNED until Thursday, May 2, 2019 at 10:00 in the morning.
