

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
June 1, 2017

Senate called to order by President Michael D. Thibodeau of Waldo County.

Prayer by Reverend Effie E. McAvoy McClain, Oakland Sidney United Methodist Church.

REVEREND MCCLAIN: Let us pray. Gracious God, as we gather today to do the work of the people, direct us in how we should be. Lead us in the decisions we make. Enable us to embody the prophet Micah; to do justice, love kindness, and humbly walk before You. Infill Your created with Your love of Your creation. Remind us that we have been granted the blessing of stewardship, so please bestow wisdom that this work may be done with dignity and with honor. Holy One, we are reminded daily in the news of those things which may divide us, yet all are here with a common purpose of service. So may eyes and hearts be open to recognize the common good in each member. May diligent work and the ability to truly listen to one another be the blessed hope of the day. May action together be the work not just today but be the good work of Your people everywhere. Finally, God, we ask that You enlighten our minds to be the doers of the great commandment; to love You, to love neighbor, and to love self. As Jesus said that in regards to the law, may these here who write law be mindful of that as well. This is my prayer. This is our prayer offered to You today. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator David C. Woodsome of York County.

Reading of the Journal of Wednesday, May 31, 2017.

Doctor of the day, Joel Kase, D.O. of North Yarmouth.

Senator VOLK: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President Pro Tem, I just want to take a few minutes to address the Body regarding this nomination, this nominee. This was a wonderful confirmation hearing that we had in the Labor, Commerce, Research and Economic Development Committee. Mr. Butera enjoyed a lot of bi-partisan support. There was overwhelming praise for the job that he has done in terms of his responsiveness, in terms of economic development in the Waterville area before he began to work for the Administration, and the confidence that many people have in him to lead the Department of Labor. We are very pleased with the vote that we received in committee on Mr. Butera and I'm very pleased that, I believe, he's able to be with us today.

Senator VOLK: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President Pro Tem, I just wish to take a couple of minutes in additional time to speak on this nominee who happens to be with us today as well. It's not often in this Body that we get to talk about bright spots in Maine's economy, but our exports, due to the efforts of the Maine International Trade Center, absolutely have been a bright spot in Maine's economy. I can't imagine actually where we would be without the work of MITC. It has been incredible. Those of us who have served on the Labor, Commerce, Research and Economic Development Committee over the last seven years have had the opportunity to watch as MITC has grown, has led trade missions all over the world. Janine Bisailon-Cary has been instrumental in that and we will miss her very much, but Wade Merritt has been at her side the whole time and we have full confidence in his ability to continue to increase exports in the State of Maine. We are one of the leaders in the country in increasing exports, and that's really saying something. So I'm very pleased to be able to speak on this nomination and very pleased to have Mr. Merritt with us today.

ORDERS

Joint Order

Expression of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Michael Sauschuck, of Portland, Chief of the Portland Police Department, who received the David W. Pickering Chief's Award from the Maine Association of Police. The David W. Pickering Chief's Award is given by the association to the person it has selected as Maine's police chief of the year. We extend to Chief Sauschuck our congratulations and best wishes;

READ.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Dion.

Senator DION: Good morning, Mr. President Pro Tem. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise to reinforce the commentary that was expressed by the Secretary of the Senate regarding Chief Sauschuck. I extend my congratulations to him as the Chief of Police of the Year for the Maine Association of Police. What I want to say is a little story, just for a moment. When I was a member of the other Chamber the staff would address me as Sheriff and I would chide them and say, "I'm no longer the Sheriff, I'm merely a member of that Body," and they said, "No, Sheriff, once you become a Sheriff you're always a Sheriff. It outranks whatever these Chambers offer you for status forthcoming." So I guess that applies here. It reminded me that I am a member of a family that extends well beyond this Chamber. This thin blue line of sisters and brothers who share a badge and a common commitment, much like my brothers today, Senator Davis and Senator Cyrway, who are formed from the same bedrock that I am; honor, integrity, loyalty, courage in spite of criticism from public or from within. There was no more challenging profession than he or she assumes when they become a police officer. It's often said it's not a job, it's who we become and in time, no matter what we become, we remain at our core police officers. We're just serving a different assignment. In these times of criticism, of public doubt as to the value of that profession, of skepticism surrounding the way police officers conduct themselves in the most difficult conflicted times, I think it's important that in the person of Chief Sauschuck we extend a thank you that he can accept on behalf of other police chiefs, sheriffs, correctional administrators, and the list goes on. I want to say something: we think of police officers, and we hope the very best are selected for that position, and we compliment them as they rise in their career and accomplish much on behalf of those who have very little voice, but I want to tell you, and I'm sure the Senators that I've mentioned would share a similar sentiment, we are only as good as the chiefs who lead us. We're only as successful as the leaders who encourage us, defend us, coach us, preserve the line with us. In Chief Sauschuck we have such an individual. I am proud to consider him a Chief of the City of Portland. Although I'm characterized as a Sheriff, I spent the formation of my career as a member of that agency. It'll always be home. It'll always be the cornerstone of my profession. As I grew as a professional, I looked to my chiefs at that time for guidance about how I should conduct myself, how I should engage the community, who was I really working for. These are important lessons that only a chief can communicate to the officers under her or his care. Yet very little do we say to our chiefs, other than this expectation that they get it done right. It is a lonely job. It's a difficult vocation, and often times, when they're alone at night, they wonder do we support them. Do we have their back as they have the back of their officers. That's why I felt compelled to bring this sentiment forward, so that we would have an opportunity to tell at least one chief that the case is that, that we do stand with them, and that's why it's important that we do what we do this morning. On a personal note, one of my last duties as Deputy Chief of the Portland Police Department, I interviewed a young Marine full of promise. He seemed intellectually bright. He was articulate. He had a sense of who people were. As I watched his career, my sense of that day was validated by someone who could speak to both sides of an issue, who could broker an acceptable resolution where conflict existed, who could inspire men and women to act the best that they could, and that person is Chief Sauschuck. We didn't guess wrong then and I'm pleased today to offer this simple thank you from this Body. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Chipman.

Senator CHIPMAN: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I also rise to offer a few comments about Chief Sauschuck. I've had the pleasure of working with him for several years when I was in the House and here in the Senate, and he's just really an amazing Police Chief for a number of reasons. He's very responsive to the needs of folks in the community. Whenever I've reached out to him he's been there. We've worked together on legislation, and when there are issues that arise in the community, conflicts that arise, he reaches out. I've seen him at neighborhood meetings. I've seen him around the table, meeting with immigrant groups, working to resolve conflicts in the community and to keep peace in the community, and all with the goal of keeping crime down in the community, which I think is really important. So we're really lucky to have him and he's really been an amazing Police Chief and I hope that he stays with the department for a number of more years. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Piscataquis, Senator Davis.

Senator DAVIS: Thank you, Mr. President. I just rise, I don't know the Chief, but I do know that this is probably a well-earned award. The Maine Association of Police don't give these away easily and I would simply echo what my good friend from Cumberland, Senator Dion, said about leadership and all of that, and I congratulate the Chief on this award. Thank you.

PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber Michael Sauschuck of Portland, Chief of the Portland Police Department. Would he please rise and accept the congratulations and best wishes of the Senate.

Senate at Ease.

The Senate was called to order by President Pro Tempore Mason.

Senator LANGLEY of Hancock moved the Senate ACCEPT the Majority OUGHT NOT TO PASS Report, in concurrence.

On motion by Senator MILLETT of Cumberland, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Millett.

Senator MILLETT: Thank you, Mr. President Pro Tem. I want to just rise briefly to speak as to what we discovered with this bill in the Education Committee. The majority of the committee had grave concerns about this bill. Parents would only receive a State subsidy attributable to the school district of which they belonged. For some districts that could be as low as only $1,000, depending on how much the district actually received from the State in funding. So, therefore, some wealthier families could afford to make up the difference, but most will not, especially in light of the high cost of special education. In addition, interestingly, the law only requires families to spend an undetermined "portion" of the funds to provide an education for a child in a manner consistent with Maine's Learning Results. There are unanswered questions about the fiscal oversight of the program to make sure that State funds were used properly and, finally, most disturbing for me, when parents sign up for the program they are literally signing away the right to ensure a free and appropriate public education for their child. Private schools are not required to enroll the student with disabilities, nor provide the necessary support or services. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Brakey.

Senator BRAKEY: Thank you, Mr. President. I'll be very brief. This bill simply gives parents more choices. No one's forcing anything on them. No one's forcing any of these programs on them. This is simply giving parents who may want to take their child's education in their hands the opportunity to make that choice and to receive some of the resources that would have been - that would have gone - to the school system for their child's education instead. I don't see any problem with giving parents more choices. I'll leave it at that.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Hancock, Senator Langley.

Senator LANGLEY: Thank you, Mr. President Pro Tem. I rise to support the motion that's on the floor. I just want to reiterate with what my good colleague from Cumberland, Senator Millett, had said. The piece that bothers me, as a 30 year educator, is when the parent, or legal guardian, releases the school administrative unit from all obligations to educate the child. I think parents, while having the best intentions for their students, I don't know if they, when they go into PET and IEP meetings, they don't ask what do those services cost the district. If you need speech therapy, occupational therapy, or any other special services, the focus has always been on the child. I don't know. So if that money follows the child out the door, and that child really needs $100,000 worth of services, they've severed their relationship with the school, they get down the road and they find out that they've nowhere to go. So I would ask you to follow our lights on this. Thank you very much.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The pending question now before the Senate is Acceptance of the Majority Ought Not to Pass Report. If you are in favor of it you will vote Yes. If you are opposed you will vote No. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

On motion by Senator CHIPMAN of Cumberland, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Brakey.

Senator BRAKEY: Thank you, Mr. President. I'll just say, very briefly, on this bill, this is one of these rare occasions when I found myself in agreement with some of my colleagues from across the aisle - in fact, all of my colleagues from across the aisle on the Health and Human Services Committee. I'll just briefly state the reason why. Many felt this bill should Ought Not to Pass because there are many other bills that have come before our committee, and we've actually voted on and passed in this Body, to give funding to these institutions. In fact, over and above anything that is in this bill. We voted on bills that give a lot more funding. So, in light of that, this bill is somewhat unnecessary. So if folks want to pass this bill and send it on, I guess it doesn't make much difference either way. There're bills sitting on the Appropriations Table that will give - that seek to give - funding to these institutions as is. So I'll leave it at that.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Knox, Senator Miramant.

Senator MIRAMANT: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I just want to rise in support of this bill because I've been meeting with my community facilities and, while the other bills that my colleague speaks of may be on the way, there have been different factors that have effected their income so they've cut services where they were really helping folks in the community and now they can just barely keep their head above water and keep people, minimum staff. Whatever I can try to do to help them I want to do, and I request a roll call, please.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: A roll call has already been ordered, Senator. The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Ought Not to Pass Report. If you are in favor you will vote Yes. If you are opposed you will vote No. Is the Senate ready for the question?

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Libby.

Senator LIBBY: Thank you, Mr. President Pro Tem. I rise in opposition to the current motion. My involvement with this issue began with a conversation with a former Bureau of Veteran's Services officer. He described to me what he saw, in his view, as serious ethical concerns with his management at the bureau's mandated practice of accepting certain veteran's disability claims deemed to be a "slam dunk" while refusing other veteran's disability claims that appeared to be more challenging or more complex. In certain circumstances, he was told not to accept certain cases to represent for the VA, even though he was confident a claim would be approved. Mr. President Pro Tem, the discussion in the committee around what to do with this issue resulted in a couple of different points of view. One proposal, one solution, is basically prohibiting this practice from going forward, and I'd ask the Chamber to consider that in voting on the pending motion and get onto the Minority Report. Thank you, Mr. President Pro Tem.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The pending question now before the Senate is Acceptance of the Ought Not to Pass Report. If you are in favor of it you will vote Yes. If you are opposed you will vote No. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

On motion by Senator CHIPMAN of Cumberland, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Bellows.

Senator BELLOWS: Thank you, Mr. President Pro Tem. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise in opposition to the pending motion. Kennebec County has one of the highest concentrations of arsenic in the state. Statewide, an estimated 1 in 8 wells are contaminated with arsenic. In my county it's 27.9%, almost 1 in 3 wells are contaminated with arsenic. I was first made aware of this and the horrifying health consequences by talking to constituents in my district. I remember a grandmother in Monmouth sharing with me her concerns for her grandchildren and the town's children and grandchildren, and speaking about the scientific research that demonstrates a correlation between high arsenic levels and learning disabilities and lowered IQs. A small group in Hallowell invited me to their home to discuss the issue as a group, which included pediatricians and doctors in the area. Several women in Manchester, including a woman recently diagnosed with cancer - another devastating consequence of arsenic contamination - told me about their horror at finding their own wells greatly exceeding acceptable levels of arsenic. So after hearing over and over again arsenic in well water was a real problem, I tested my own well. It has 3 times the maximum allowable level of arsenic. My husband and I had been drinking unsafe well water for years and didn't know it. We shouldn't have been surprised. Over 50% of the household wells tested in my Town of Manchester, including my own well, have unsafe levels of arsenic. This bill is a very simple bill. Currently, the Department of Health and Human Services may waive fees for testing of private well water upon a showing of indigence, but indigence is not defined and most families, even low income families, would be hesitant to describe themselves as indigent, which generally in public discourse is considered homeless or extraordinarily having no funds at all. This bill says that the department shall waive fees for testing for any household with income equal to or below 200% of the federal poverty level. It's a very simple and clear definition that will help low income families have clarity and get the tests they need to find out what's in their well water. I believe safe, clean drinking water is a basic human right. I'm proud of the bi-partisan work that has gone into this issue on many fronts, and I urge you to join me in opposing the pending motion.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Brakey.

Senator BRAKEY: Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of the Ought Not to Pass motion, but not to disagree with anything that my - well, mostly not disagree with anything - colleague from Kennebec County has just spoken. She's right, that there is work to be done, which is why I'm tremendously proud that earlier in today's session this Body just unanimously enacted, or voted for, legislation to make some progress on this. I will point out, unlike a previous bill that we voted on earlier in today's session, this bill has a fiscal note that costs $2.7 million to the General Fund. We can make progress on this issue - we have made progress on this issue earlier today - by finding funds, and putting them towards this cause, that don't come at a $2.7 million General Fund impact. So I think we've made very good progress, unanimously as a Body, today and this bill there, simply, is a $2.7 million fiscal note. Thank you very much.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The question now before the Senate is Acceptance of the Ought Not to Pass Report. If you are in favor of it you will vote Yes. If you are opposed to it you will vote No. Is the Senate ready for the question?
