JOINT RESOLUTION - Memorializing the President of the United States and the United States Congress to Lead a Global Effort to Prevent Nuclear War

S.P. 448

In Senate, April 2, 2019, on motion by Senator GRATWICK of Penobscot, READ and ADOPTED.

Comes from the House, Joint Resolution INDEFINITELY POSTPONED in NON-CONCURRENCE.

Senator LIBBY of Androscoggin moved the Senate RECEDE and CONCUR.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Gratwick.

Senator GRATWICK: Thank you very much, Mr. President and colleagues here in the Senate. I wish to speak briefly on this before going on to Recede and Concur. This Joint Resolution memorializing the President of the United States and the United States Congress to lead a global effort to prevent nuclear war. We've seen this Resolution here several weeks ago in the Senate. It calls on our four Congressional representatives to support efforts in Washington to restrain the production and the use of nuclear weapons. It's back before us because it turns out that a letter with our individual signatures carries more weight in Washington than will a printed legislative Resolve. America is justifiably proud of its military and our military traditions. They are second to none. But real power does not lie in nuclear weapons and their threatened use. A nuclear exchange would destroy life as we know it for generations. We all know this but we don't like to recognize it. Real power lies in the judicious use of our conventional arms, our alliances, but most importantly, the stability of our institutions. A very small personal side note, this has been an issue that I've been concerned with since 1984 when there was a lot of bellicose talks starting in Washington about the possible use of nuclear weapons. I've been involved with this group called Physicians for Social Responsibility. Very interesting journey and the long and short is that there is no medical response at all. Zero. You cannot have a medical response to major nuclear exchange. This group, I got to go to Oslo, Norway for the Nobel Peace Prize, representing Maine, in 1984. Very exciting and very moving. Part of our responsibility here as leaders in our remarkable democracy is to share our wisdom and our values. This is exactly what makes us strong. On your desks here you have a letter which I hope you'll sign, give it to the pages, have them bring it over to me, and that will go off to our leaders in Washington. Thank you very much, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I was very honored to listen to what the House had spoke on this bill. There are many military people that spoke up against this bill because they didn't realize how devastating this could be because it was saying how likely the President took as far as nuclear war and it's nothing of the sorts. So I believe that I was very honored to hear, on both sides of the aisle, of having military people stand up and say they didn't want their name on this. I would be the same way. Thank you, Mr. President.

On motion by Senator LIBBY of Androscoggin, the Senate RECEDED and CONCURRED.

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Waldo, Senator Herbig.

Senator HERBIG: Mr. President, women and men of the Senate, it is my privilege to welcome Kay Dodd and her family here to the Senate today. Kay, or Mrs. Dodd really by most people that know her, is retiring after serving 37 years as an Administrative Assistant at the Gladys A. Weymouth Elementary School in Morrill, a career she started in 1982. Since Mrs. Dodd has served for decades, she has welcomed generations of students and their parents. Bridgett Knight, a former student at the school who is now a parent, said that 'sending my kids to the school that I went to and having the same staff there, it just gave me an extra layer of comfort.' The Principal of Gladys Weymouth, Lori Smails, said that staying in the same place for so many years is a testament to Mrs. Dodd's commitment to our community and to the school. 'She has that institutional knowledge that's so important for building bridges with families,' said Principal Smails. 'She is very reassuring and comforting to families in transition. She's always caring, kind, compassionate, and organized. If a child or parent needs her, she'll make the time to meet their needs while still doing the administrative work she needs to get done. She's a wealth of knowledge. I'm sure I'll be reaching out to her and picking her brain next year.' Coworkers noted that neither Mrs. Dodd nor her colleague, Susan Olson, who is also retiring after more than 30 years of service, checked out before they retired. When a mindfulness workshop was held for faculty last summer, Mrs. Dodd and Mrs. Olson were the only two to attend. Maybe that's their secret. Kay, thank you so much for your service to our community, for making such a loving and positive impact on generations of families across Waldo County, including my own. On behalf of the Maine Legislature, it is my great honor to present

This is notification of the Committee's action.

Sincerely,

S/Sen. Shenna Bellows

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Unfinished Business

The following matters in the consideration of which the Senate was engaged at the time of Adjournment had preference in the Orders of the Day and continued with such preference until disposed of as provided by Senate Rule 516.

The Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later Assigned (5/23/19) matter:

HOUSE REPORTS - from the Committee on LABOR AND HOUSING on Bill "An Act To Promote Keeping Workers in Maine" H.P. 538 L.D. 733

Majority - Ought to Pass as Amended by Committee Amendment "A" (H-280) (8 members)

Minority - Ought Not to Pass (5 members)

Tabled - May 23, 2019 by Senator VITELLI of Sagadahoc

Pending - ADOPTION OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-280), in concurrence

(In House, the Majority OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED Report READ and ACCEPTED and the Bill PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-280).)

(In Senate, May 23, 2019, the Majority OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED Report READ and ACCEPTED. Committee Amendment "A" (H-280) READ.)

On motion by Senator DIAMOND of Cumberland, Senate Amendment "A" (S-208) to Committee Amendment "A" (H-280) READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Diamond.

Senator DIAMOND: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen, this adjusts the threshold to the non-compete level, which the original bill had set at 300% of the federal poverty wage. When you look at that 300%, it translates to about $30,000. So this would mean that people who are earning $30,000 would come under the non-compete threshold. If you stop and think of that and what the non-compete is all about, and I've used the non-compete, it's really for upper management. It's not for front line workers. At this level, the way it is now without this amendment, this would hit people who are like CNAs, for example, people who do very baseline work, and that's never been the intension of a non-compete and I think to keep the integrity of the non-compete we need to raise that to the next level, which is what this does. Non-compete, as we all know, is to protect confidential information. People who have access to company inside business, as it were, or confidential files, and it's to keep those files protected, and rightly so. But this goes way beyond what that is intended for, which is why I submitted this amendment. Thank you, Mr. President.

Senator ROSEN of Hancock requested and received leave of the Senate that members and staff be allowed to remove their jackets for the remainder of this Legislative Day.

On motion by Senator TIMBERLAKE of Androscoggin, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

35 Senators having voted in the affirmative and no Senators having voted in the negative, with 1 Senator being excused, the motion by Senator DIAMOND of Cumberland to ADOPT Senate Amendment "A" (S-208) to Committee Amendment "A" (H-280) PREVAILED.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Timberlake.

Senator TIMBERLAKE: I think I'm at the right place this time, where I should have been last time, Mr. President. This is the adoption of the bill? I request a roll call. I want to make sure I get it right. I did it wrong last time.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair would like to advise that this is adoption of the Committee Amendment with a new amendment on it.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-280) as Amended by Senate Amendment "A" (S-208) thereto, ADOPTED, in NON-CONCURRENCE.

Under suspension of the Rules, READ A SECOND TIME.

On motion by Senator TIMBERLAKE of Androscoggin, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Bellows.

Senator BELLOWS: Thank you, Mr. President. I was so pleased to see the bipartisanship that was shown to strengthen this bill and my good colleague from Cumberland, Senator Diamond, and I hope that that same bipartisanship would prevail in passage and engrossment of the motion before us. When I was graduating from high school, about this time in 1993, a family friend gave me a copy of Adam Smith's Wealth of Nations, which I read cover to cover before I went on to major in economics. It discusses the free market, that the free market should be governed by the laws of supply and demand, and I would suggest that that applies to workers as well. Non-competes are the agreements that workers are given on their first day of work, that they sign sometimes not realizing that they cannot then go to work for a competitor of that organization. What our committee learned was these non-competes were not being restricted, as was traditionally the practice, to CEOs or high level executives who might be in possession of proprietary information or trade secrets, but that these non-competes were being submitted to employees in sandwich shops like Jimmy Johns and Subway, that CNAs were being presented with these non-competes, harming workforce shortages and exacerbating workforce shortages already present in our state. There was someone selling beer in the Portland area who was presented with a non-compete and when he refused to sign it, because he didn't believe that being a clerk engaged in the sale of beer and liquor was entirely proprietary information, he had to leave his job and the sponsor of this bill told the tragic story of his daughter, a web developer, who was employed. She had a challenge with her employer. She was let go in the Bangor area. Because of the non-compete, she was not allowed to work in her chosen profession of web design anywhere in the state of Maine and had to leave the state. This is about retaining workers in our workforce here in our state. This is about the free market and the choice that people have to go from one business to another for employment, and this does nothing to harm the existence of non-disclosure, confidentiality agreements and trade secrets that exist in Title 10, that are protected in the law. So a business absolutely can place limits on their employees' disclosure of information but they shouldn't be able to tell these lower level employees, people who are being paid less than your top executives, that they can't work anywhere that they want to work in our state. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Guerin.

Senator GUERIN: Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, non-competes are private contracts. In this time of near full employment, employees have many choices and employers are limited in their choices and are offering the best packages they can to attract good employees. Employees can certainly choose not to sign a non-compete contract and be free from those restrictions. I believe there should be the availability of these contracts to protect businesses who have invested in their employees in training them and giving them specific skills and the government should not be interfering with these private contracts.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I just have a question. Would this effect, for example, law enforcement if they go to another place of employment, if they have gone to the academy, would they have to still buy out or not that cost? That would be a big factor here, if you're just saying it's non-competitive and they just can go and no consequence whatever. I think that could affect a lot.

THE PRESIDENT: The Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway has posed a question through the Chair to anyone who can answer. The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Bellows.

Senator BELLOWS: Thank you, Mr. President. I rise simply to answer the question. Our committee did have a discussion about what would happen should an employer have provided and covered the cost of education and training for a particular worker. Could they, in a separate contract from a non-compete, require that the worker recoup or repay the cost of that training prior to leaving employment? The Department of Labor said absolutely. Nothing in this bill prohibits an employer who is providing specialized training or paying for specialized education from requiring that employee to repay those costs should they leave employment prior to a specified period of time.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Passage to be Engrossed as Amended by Committee Amendment "A" (H-280) as Amended by Senate Amendment "A" (S-208) thereto. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

On further motion by same Senator, Senate Amendment "B" (S-196) to Committee Amendment "A" (S-132) READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Chenette.

Senator CHENETTE: Thank you, Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I rise as the sponsor of this bill and in support of the pending motion to highlight why this amendment is critically needed. As Chair of the Government Oversight Committee, co-Chair of the Democracy Reform Caucus, and as a member of the Senate Ethics Committee, issues pertaining to strengthening ethics, governmental accountability, reducing lobbyist's influence, and getting money out of politics are at the core of my legislative service and have been since I arrived here seven years ago. I want you all to imagine something that I've long thought as very possible within my lifetime. Imagine a state government, Mr. President, that operates with the best interests of Maine people, not one based on who writes the biggest check. Imagine a state government that isn't unduly influenced or hindered by special interest groups. Imagine a state government where industries cannot financially sway the very lawmakers in charge of regulating them. Imagine a state government where access to elected officials is not determined by payment at a swanky fundraiser. We don't have to just imagine it. We can make it happen here today with this vote. We have a momentous opportunity before us to address a topic that has long been the third rail under the State House dome, campaign finance and ethics reform. Currently, Maine has strict contribution limits for Legislative candidates but not so much when they actually win and enter office and the proliferation of political action committees, or PACs, have revealed rampant loopholes to our anti-corruption laws. PACs have no contribution limits, which means corporations, special interest groups, and lobbyists can literally spend unlimited amounts of money to garner access, influence, and potentially a vote in the Maine Legislature. In one year 400 entities hired 229 lobbyists and spent nearly $5 million to lobby members of the Legislature. Now why are large, multi-national corporations and lobbying firms giving $1,000, $5,000, or even $10,000 to a single lawmaker? Just so you know, it's not out of the charitable goodness of their hearts. There is an expectation of a return on that investment. Anthony Corrado of Colby College in the Brookings Institute says, 'Generally donors who give to leadership PACs are looking for access to legislative leaders. They're hoping to have their voices heard when their matters come before the legislators and, therefore, they tend to give on both sides of the aisle.' There is a big difference, Mr. President, between the $10,000 contribution from outside interests and a well-regulated limited contribution of either $400 or a $5 Clean Elections qualifying check from one of our constituents. When lobbyists are able to donate such large amounts of money it raises the question: who will lawmakers feel most accountable to, a constituent or a big donor? What's even worse is when corporations and lobbyists seek out legislators who serve on certain committees that directly impact their line of business. For example, it's been common practice for telecommunications and utilities companies to contribute thousands of dollars to members of the committee that regulates them. That means companies such as CMP and Spectrum are directly taking advantage of a system that allows them to try to influence policy outcomes. To most anyone, the layperson on the street, Mr. President, this would seem like an obvious conflict of interest, a violation of public trust, but it's completely legal under our broken laws.

When it comes to contributions from lobbyists, the only stipulation currently on the books is that lobbyists cannot give money to sitting lawmakers while we're in session, which is usually, as you know, January through April or June. But make no mistake, this in-session ban is no stopgap measure. The influence is still there, no matter what time of the year the contribution is made, which is normally right before session begins and right after it ends. There is a reason all of our inboxes get cluttered with fundraiser invitations right before the sound of the bell when session begins or right after sine die, when session is over. If it's deemed inappropriate for lobbyists to contribute to lawmakers while session is going on, it should be inappropriate before and after session and the rest of the year as well.

While it is clear there is a First Amendment right to lobby the Legislature and courts have also held up the right to make campaign contributions, it doesn't give free range and blank checks for lobbyists to use money to secure access and bolster their position with legislators. Courts have recognized that where there the recipient is a legislator the State is justified in regulating their contributions to protect public confidence. We specifically crafted language to allow free speech consideration for lobbyists. Lobbyists in your legislative districts would still be allowed to donate to their local candidates, just like you, and their PACs. They can exercise their free speech as a citizen while still tightening the rules in their employment as a lobbyist. In the case of gubernatorial candidates, this free speech consideration will essentially bar out-of-state lobbyists from contributing, and I've heard from many of you in this chamber about the need to tackle money pouring in from out-of-state in our elections. This starts to get at that issue. At least out-of-state lobbyist's money would be banned under this law.

On the flip side, Mr. President, we see legislators on both sides of the aisle target professional lobbyists for large campaign contributions, a practice that poses a serious threat to legislative impartiality. When speaking with lobbyists, off the record, they are yearning for the day where they, themselves, are not stuck in a vicious loop where they feel coerced into giving money. If they sponsor one fundraiser they're called immediately to sponsor another one. Hey, you wrote them a check, why not me? I've had at least a dozen lobbyists, Mr. President, approach me about supporting this bill. They want reform just as much as our constituents do.

This bill, and this subsequent amendment, is the solution on all fronts. It simply extends the in-session ban on accepting lobbyists' contributions to year-round, essentially all-out banning lobbyists' contributions for lawmakers and the Chief Executive, as well as candidates for those offices. This amendment and bill is backed by the Maine Citizens for Clean Elections, Maine League of Women Voters, the National Group, Citizens United, the Maine People's Alliance, the Maine Education Association, and many others. According to the National Conference of State Legislators, five brave states, Mr. President, Alaska, Kentucky, South Carolina, Tennessee, and California, already ban lobbyists' contributions at any time. Those bans have already held up just fine in the courts and this is modeled after those successes. Maine should join them. This amendment, just so you know, removes party committees and ballot committee questions from the amendment to ensure we are zeroing in on the real issue, legislative PACs only, to make sure that there is not a giant loophole. If we want to really ban lobbyists' contributions let's not just talk about campaign committees. Let's also talk about legislative PACs so that it's a comprehensive reform. The system we have isn't working, Mr. President, for the average Mainer, not to mention for the lobbyists themselves. We need real reform and it starts here today. Lawmakers are supposed to be the people's lobbyists. We have a chance to make sure lawmakers are not pressured or unduly influenced by lobbyists and to make sure lobbyists aren't trapped into playing a game. This amendment is a long overdue course correction to champion honest to goodness public policy decision making, where money is taken out of the equations. Outside the State House, Mr. President, the public supports this 100%, Democrat, Republic, or in-between. They don't want a government of the lobbyists, by the corporations, and for the bottom line. So I'm asking you to restore trust and integrity back into our governmental institution and pass this bill and pass this amendment. Of all the things we do in this building, in your time as a lawmaker, what do you want to be remembered for? What do you want to look back at your time here and be proud of the work accomplished? Wouldn't it be great to say you were part of an effort to fundamentally change how we do business for decades to come, reforming the system to make it more ethical, transparent, and accountable? This is our moment for real leadership. This is our moment to set aside disagreements and come together to solve a problem that plagues modern day politics. Together we can pass comprehensive campaign finance reform that for many years has been unable to do so. Pay for play politics is coming to an end with this vote, Mr. President, and I urge you to support the pending motion.

On motion by Senator TIMBERLAKE of Androscoggin, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I sit in on Veterans and Legal Affairs and listened to Director Jonathan Wayne and he didn't feel that there was a real big issue with either Clean Elections or traditional, and I think that it's been working pretty well. On Clean Elections myself, as a candidate, and I think people have choices and I think that we should have it the way it is. I know it was quite a dynamic presentation. Jonathan Wayne wasn't quite as dynamic but he did explain that we do have laws that are pretty well covered. So, with that, I would be against this bill. Thank you.

The Chair noted the absence of the Senator from Washington, Senator MOORE, and further excused the same Senator from today's Roll Call votes.

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.
