JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

123RD LEGISLATURE
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
January 17, 2008

January 4, 2008

Honorable Joy O'Brien
Secretary of the Senate
3 State House Station
Augusta, ME 04333

Senate called to order by President Beth Edmonds of Cumberland County.

Dear Secretary O'Brien:

Prayer by Reverend Dr. Alice Z. Anderman of First Congregational Church, UCC in Waterville.

Pursuant to my authority under Chapter 58, P&S 1999, I am pleased to reappoint Senator Elizabeth Mitchell of Kennebec to the Governing Board of the Capital Riverfront Improvement District.

REVEREND ANDERMAN: Let us pray. Oh gracious God, we give You thanks for the work of the leaders in the State of Maine, especially our Senators who work together for the good of all our citizens. Fill them with the spirit of wisdom, goodness and vision to do the work they are charged to do. In these times of uncertainty and change, grant our leaders and all of us mutual respect in words and deeds and courage and confidence to do work for peace, justice and goodness for all.

Please let me know if you have any questions regarding this appointment.
Sincerely,

S/Beth Edmonds
President of the Senate

We remember Martin Luther King, Jr. who walked among the lost and lonely, the downtrodden and the outcast. Guide us to follow his footsteps, that we too may be found in places where love is so desperately needed but painfully absent. Help us to bring light to those living in darkness, hope to those living in despair, healing to the lonely, disadvantaged and marginalized, and peace to our state and divided world. May the good work done here today touch all lives in our hurting world. Amen.

Joint Resolution

The following Joint Resolution:

H.P. 1534

JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THOMAS PAINE

WHEREAS, Thomas Paine, a peer of George Washington, James Madison, Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson, was one of the most brilliant political philosophers of his time; and

WHEREAS, Thomas Paine, born in Thetford, England, was a pamphleteer who immigrated to America and was the author of "Common Sense," which advocated independence from Great Britain; and

WHEREAS, Thomas Paine supported the American Revolution through his personal service, his financial contributions and his inspirational writings, including the "Crisis" papers; and

WHEREAS, Thomas Paine was prominent in promoting universal and equal education for boys and girls, equality for women and religious freedom and was also one of the first people to suggest a league of nations; and

WHEREAS, his life and work continue to inspire those who seek liberty and democracy all over the world; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-third Legislature, now assembled in the Second Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to recognize Thomas Paine for his indelible contributions to our liberty in this country and to urge the citizens of the State to remember his accomplishments.

Comes from the House, READ and ADOPTED.

READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Turner.

Senator TURNER: Thank you, Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I think, like most of us, I am a student of history. I would ask you to reflect on Thomas Paine for a moment. He was perhaps the first press relations officer of any Legislative Body in the history of the world. While James Madison and Thomas Jefferson were the brilliant minds behind much of the writing that came out of that revolutionary period, Thomas Paine was the person who put into his Common Sense document and publication those ideals that were written for Joe Sixpack, had he existed at that point in time. Common Sense sold over 150,000 copies in a continent that had four million souls, most of whom could not read or write. He was truly one of the cogs that kept the revolutionary spirit alive during some very dark times. I think recognizing Thomas Paine is something that we should also reflect on from time to time.

Madame President, you may, if you wish, rule me out of order but while we are talking about history, when you reflect on what we did with the Declaration of Independence there were two glaring errors and omissions. One had to do with the treatment of slavery and the second had to do with the treatment of Native peoples. Even today, after 225 years, we're just at a point now where a black man can run for President and people not think it's strange or outlandish. In some respects we've made more progress with our African American citizens than we have our Native Americans. It's likely that I will not be here to enjoy deliberating anything that comes forward from this commission that spoke to us this morning. Madame President may, in fact, be in the same predicament as I. Most of you will be back and I think it's time for us to think very seriously about how we enhance the livelihood and lives of those who were here before us. We are, in fact, with the exception of them, all immigrants. Thank you, Madame President.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator, and I would add that the only other group that was left out of that was women.

ADOPTED, in concurrence.

Senator PERRY of Penobscot was granted unanimous consent to address the Senate off the Record.

On motion by Senator MITCHELL of Kennebec, ADJOURNED, pursuant to the Joint Order, to Tuesday, January 22, 2008, at 10:00 in the morning.
