COMMUNICATIONS

The Following Communication: S.C. 661

PASTOR LARSON: Almighty God, as we ready ourselves for the business of this day we pause a moment to give thanks and to ask Your blessing upon this group of men and women who have been charged with the welfare of the people of our state. You do not ask a lot of us, Lord, but to love mercy, establish justice, walk humbly with You, our Creator, and to love our neighbors as ourselves. These men and women, who have been appointed shepherds of the people, have the heavy responsibility of putting into practice those principles of fairness and justice and of giving due consideration to the needs of all. This is a mighty task and we ask for Your guidance and for divine wisdom as they wrestle with competing interests and priorities and diverse and difficult circumstances. Thank You for each man and woman who serves in our Legislature and for all others who serve in the governance of our state. May they find satisfaction, knowing that their call to public service is a proud and honorable vocation and may they be richly rewarded as by their efforts happiness, health, justice, and enlightenment are increased in the state of Maine. In Your holy name we pray. Amen.
