

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
January 26, 2012

Senate called to order by President Kevin L. Raye of Washington County.

Prayer by Pastor Cathy Cantin of Bradley Memorial United Methodist Church in Fryeburg.

PASTOR CANTIN: Good morning. I offer you some verse from the Bible, from Proverb 16 3. Commit thy works unto the Lord and thy thoughts should be established. Would you join me.
Holy and Heavenly One, as we pause for a moment of quiet blessing before the business of this session, cause us to take a step back and to rest in You. Allow us to be refreshed with the knowledge that we are the very people who have been chosen by friends and other community members in confidence that those of us who work in this grand room will do the hard work on making those important decisions that cause this great state of Maine to survive and strive. Fill us with Your grace, Heavenly One, to leave at the door all worries, troubles, disagreements. Fill us with the strength to approach each issue presented here today with open eyes, open ears, and open minds. Allow us to make clear and thoughtful and passionate decisions that keep this grant state running. Remind each heart of the fruits of the spirit that You so generously gave us; the fruits of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, and self control that guide us through a life. Guide us in showing love for this grand state of Maine and love for all of the constituents. Guide us to bring the joy of serving; that same joy that we experienced when we entered these halls for the first time. Help us to experience the peace of knowing that the decisions and recommendations made here today will create a better founded government by using the fruit of patience to work together and work out differences, working out problems and weighing it against all good. Help us to show kindness towards all, no matter what side of the issue or what party we represent. May we not show a weak willed and mushy kindness, but a strong and practical and feeling kindness, to make decisions with a clear heart. Bless us as we display a sense of goodness, of being fair to all and legislate with a clear and loving heart and allow our faithfulness, the faithfulness when we took that oath to serve, to shine through. Most of all, Heavenly One, please strengthen our self control so that there will be no snap decisions or decisions based on bias made within these walls, but the self control of looking at each issue with open hearts for all sides and weighing out each issue carefully before casting even one single vote. Holy One, You have placed a great deal on each person's plate, but You have not given these tasks lightly. You, in Your infinite wisdom, allowed each person here today because of the strong character You possess. Each person, as they begin their day, remind us that they are ever present and You are ever present to fall back on. Bless them in their wisdom. Guide them through all. Allow each one to open their ears and their hearts, to be able to hear Your right and good and holy ways so that each decision is based only on the finest qualities of these, Your servants before You. All this we pray in Your heavenly name. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Barry J. Hobbins of York County.

The Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later Today Assigned matter:

NOMINATION - of Evert N. Fowle, Jr. of Vassalboro for appointment as a District Court Judge

Tabled - January 26, 2012, by Senator COURTNEY of York

Pending - CONSIDERATION

(In Senate, January 26, 2012, Communication (S.C. 671) from the Committee on JUDICIARY, READ and ORDERED PLACED ON FILE.)

The President laid before the Senate the following: "Shall the recommendation of the Committee on JUDICIARY be overridden?"

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Katz.

Senator KATZ: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I rise today in hearty support of the nomination of Evert Fowle as a District Court Judge. In the time I practiced law in Kennebec County, I've been fortunate to deal with three District Attorneys. Joseph Jabar, who is now a Supreme Court Justice; David Crook, who served for many years and I always got great pleasure telling my friends from out-of-state that our District Attorney was named Crook; and now Evert Fowle. Evert has served the counties of Kennebec and Somerset well as District Attorney. He is honest and fair. I always read with disgust stories from around the country about the rogue prosecutor here or there who takes his job a little bit too seriously, to the point of withholding evidence or putting on testimony that he or she knows probably is not so simply in the interest of getting a conviction. That is something that would never happen by Evert Fowle, or anybody's office for that matter. Evert figured out a long time ago that the role of a prosecutor is just not to put people away, but it is also to make sure that the people get a fair shake. I've been on the opposite side on many many cases. Evert was always willing to listen, always willing to change his mind on the rare occasion that we thought he should. I've got to admit in retrospect, looking back, that it was he, and not I, who was usually right. Again, the purpose of the role of the District Attorney is not simply to put people away. Evert's been a leader in the state in moving that principle forward. He was one of the founders of the Kennebec County Co-Occurring Disorders Court, which is a program which takes people who have mental illness and substance abuse problem and puts them on a little bit different track. It allows them to take responsibility for what they did while also giving them a chance to be able to reintegrate themselves into society. I have no doubt that Evert Fowle will make an outstanding District Court Judge and I urge all members of this Body to support his nomination. Thank you. Evert is here with is wife, Lori, this morning.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Hastings.

Senator HASTINGS: Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I want to be very brief on this. As Senator Katz said, the testimony was very strong in favor of District Attorney Fowle. I just want to pass on one comment. Testimony was extensive. Extensive from all areas, not just the prosecutors, but the defense attorneys and the police came. As I commented to the committee, I fully expected a bus from the Kennebec County Jail there with a line-up of prisoners thanking Evert Fowle for the wonderful and fair sentence that he had recommended for them. I do strongly recommend this Body to support this nomination.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Gerzofsky.

Senator GERZOFSKY: Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I, too, would like to stand here and endorse this nominee. We've worked on Criminal Justice Committee many years together. Evert was head of the DA's. When it was trying to strengthen the laws on sex offenders, getting them in front of the bar, getting convictions, getting sentences that are more appropriate, Evert was a champion that came in front of the committee and made us understand and to love law and to understand how it effects us all and how it effects the public safety in the state of Maine. No matter what the issue was, when we looked at creating a unified corrections system, when we looked at over crowded facilities, when we looked at, as I said earlier, sex offenders, when we looked at people writing bad checks, no matter what the issue was Evert came to the table and got people that don't have a legal background, like some of the previous speakers, to understand just how it would effect the process from the top to the bottom and how it all interwove into this beautiful quilt that we have. When we talked about sentencing and trying to make sense of it years ago in the Task Force, Mr. Fowle was at the table, trying to help us understand. I can't think of a better nominee. I am so happy to be able to stand up here and speak for him. Sitting on the Committee of Criminal Justice and Public Safety for so many years and having that kind of a relationship, the one thing that I would leave us with is when we're trying to downsize some of our laws and trying to consolidate things, Evert is the only person that ever came to the table and helped me, personally, get rid of a whole page of law out of our book that we hold in front of us. To this day I appreciate that day and that experience. Thank you very much.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Diamond.

Senator DIAMOND: Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I, too, concur with the remarks that have been made, but I also wanted to rise just briefly and tell everybody in this Chamber, and those who are listening, that Evert Fowle has many times gone above and beyond. If you remember back to Tina's Law, a law that was designed to get people who are continually ignoring the driving habits and becoming serious offenders and ending up killing or injuring people, Evert Fowle was one of the key people in making that legislation come to life and withstand challenges, including an appeal on its very standing. Evert was just a champion there and we could always thank him for that. Beyond that, as Senator Gerzofsky stated, all that was done with the sex offender registry, in its beginning years and all the complications, followed by the challenges and appeals and Constitutional questions, Evert Fowle was always there and he was guiding light for the committee and this Legislature. I, for one, Mr. President, want to extend my congratulations to the Governor for choosing Evert Fowle for this position and I wish him well.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Hill.

Senator HILL: Thank you Mr. President. I rise to endorse Evert Fowle as well. I just want to share a little quick story. My first term as a freshman here at the Legislature, which of course was in the House, I served on the Criminal Justice Committee. That's when I came to know Evert Fowle. At times I found him a little scary because I thought he was a little conservative. Nonetheless, we developed a very nice working relationship. In particular, I want to thank him for his work on the admission interlock bill. The committee was about to do away with it and I went up to the then Chairs, Senator Stan Gerzofsky and Senator Diamond, and said to them, "I just feel like there is some merit here. Will you give me a chance to work on the side with it?" They said, "Sure." They put together a little sub-committee and Evert was put on this sub-committee as well. The first e-mail that I received from him said, "I don't know how this is going to work out because I'm a dinosaur." I thought, "Oh my word, what is this going to work out like? How difficult will it be?" He was a champion. In the end, the bill went through committee and went under the hammer in the House and the Senate. I realized he was not a dinosaur. He was a dynamo.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Hobbins.

Senator HOBBS: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I, too, rise today in full support of this nomination. Mr. Fowle is a very fortunate individual. About two hours of his nomination committee vote or consideration and public hearing was spent praising Mr. Fowle. So far I think he's broken the record here in the Senate on a nomination for a judgeship of those who have spoken in favor of him. He should understand that this is like he has received an Irish wake, only he's still alive. I mean that with great admiration. As a Senate Chair of the Judiciary Committee, I worked with Mr. Fowle very actively. I can tell you that he was the go to person, whether we was talking about sentencing issues, whether we was talking about restraint and the issues of the criminal justice system, or whether we was talking about rehabilitation of those who had committed crimes against society. He always looked at things very deliberately, and has, I believe, a very very keen interest in the overall picture of the criminal justice system. I know that he will transition well in his position as a District Court Judge in dealing with the civil aspect of our law too. He's a quick read and I admire his public service to Maine. I look forward to seeing him as a District Court Judge and complementing the other judges that presently serve at all of the different levels in the court system. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Dill.

Senator DILL: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I feel it's my duty to report one weakness that was mentioned by the Governor's Council about District Attorney Fowle, now soon to be Judge Fowle. That is that Mr. Fowle is, in fact, a Democrat. I just wanted to pass along the caution that Dan Billings raised at the committee hearing. Before you cast your vote you should have that one fact. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Courtney.

Senator COURTNEY: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I just suggest that this side of the aisle it would be perfectly willing to overlook that.

In accordance with 3 M.R.S.A., Chapter 6, Section 151, and with Joint Rule 506 of the 125th Legislature, the vote was taken by the Yeas and Nays.

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

The Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later Today Assigned matter:

NOMINATION - of Patrick C. Keliher of South Gardiner for appointment as the Commissioner of the Department of Marine Resources

Tabled - January 26, 2012, by Senator COURTNEY of York

Pending - CONSIDERATION

(In Senate, January 26, 2012, Communication (S.C. 674) from the Committee on MARINE RESOURCES, READ and ORDERED PLACED ON FILE.)

The President laid before the Senate the following: "Shall the recommendation of the Committee on MARINE RESOURCES be overridden?"

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Snowe-Mello.

Senator SNOWE-MELLO: Thank you Mr. President. Honorable members of the Senate, I stand here today in full support of Patrick C. Keliher for Commissioner of the Department of Marine Resources. Indeed, it is my pleasure to do so. I am going to tell you, Acting Commissioner Keliher was asked during the committee by almost every single member of our committee some very tough questions. They consisted of a wide array of a full complement of marine resource issues. Patrick Keliher answered and addressed each question with knowledge and honesty. Mr. Keliher clearly has a passion for marine resource issues. I learned a lot at the hearing of his history and how much love he has for marine resources. Also at the public hearing we had lobstermen, we had clambers, and we had groundfishermen speak about the nomination of Mr. Keliher. It became very evident that they had great respect for this man. What they most liked about him is that he was a great communicator and one of his best skills is that he listens. He listens to them. This is amazing for a Commissioner, a future Commissioner, to be able to do this. As we all know, fishermen can be at odds and quite often disagree with their Commissioner. I know that the folks, our fishermen, really and truly believe that he will be very attentive to them. They might not always agree with him, but I think this is just what we need, a Commissioner that will be able to bring the other fishermen of this state together. I believe that Patrick Keliher has an enormous task ahead of him. I wish him luck and I stand here really thrilled and hope that you will agree. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Hancock, Senator Langley.

Senator LANGLEY: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I also rise in support of Patrick Keliher's nomination to be the Commissioner of Marine Resources. The unique position that I've had is that he's been the Acting Commissioner and so I've had a lot of experience with him kind of out there on the street. What I've seen is that he's got the experience and he's got the skills to communicate well on the docks in Maine where I've heard him talking to fishermen who want to choke out the local marine patrol officer and to the suits in D.C. who only talk science. The depth and breath of skills that it takes to communicate well on both ends of that spectrum, not many people have. In my district, when the fishing community talks about Augusta you might think it's us they talk about. In reality, when they talk about Augusta they mean the Department of Marine Resources. Fishermen have called me over the past few weeks really to let me know that the Commissioner, this Commissioner, is their most important link to Augusta. I can't be more pleased to support this nomination. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Sullivan.

Senator SULLIVAN: Thank you Mr. President. I, too, rise in support of this nomination. Patrick Keliher has done an amazing job in trying to bring together a department that has been under stress; stress financially, stress because it is such a large part of the economy for the state of Maine, and stress within rank and file in the dynamics and the working dynamics of that department. He has managed to do so with humor, and that is a saving grace. Anybody who has taught school knows that you'd better have a sense of humor real quickly to survive. He has taken that same idea to the department. He has a sense of respect that appears to be among his peers, the people who will be working for him now, and the fishermen. Where I'm from lobstering, in particular, is a large part of our economy. Many people do not realize lobstermen have always strongly believed in what's called "water line legislation". They really don't care, by in large, what we do here. If they feel they are not being spoken for the way they want to be, they create their own legislation, cutting traps or whatever. It has happened in Cape Porpoise and we call it "water line legislation". Every single one that talked to me said, "We like this man. We can talk with him. We don't think he's always right, but we can talk to him." He has strived to bring unity to a group of people that are typical Downeast Mainers. They want to do it their way. We are very fortunate that we have lobstermen that understand. Not only do they want to earn money, they want to keep the supply and conserve so that their children can also follow them. Certainly the Commissioner, I believe, will bring a lot to our economy, a lot due to the fact that Maine seafood is pristine. It has a reputation for being the best. I see a lot of work in being able to export, value added to that. I firmly stand here and I want to congratulate also the Chair. It was a long hearing for a Commissioner and the questions were hard. They went from value added to everything. The Chair did a fine job in running that and I think we've made a great, great unanimous choice and I hope and I know that he will be confirmed here. To Mr. Keliher, you did say you were surprised I did not ask a certain question. I always ask to name me three adjectives that would describe you, sir. I hadn't asked it. Afterwards he came up and he had written the three adjectives. The adjectives were excellent. Sometime you should share them with the committee. Thank you, Deputy or Acting, but soon to be simply Commissioner. Thank you, Mr. President.

In accordance with 3 M.R.S.A., Chapter 6, Section 151, and with Joint Rule 506 of the 125th Legislature, the vote was taken by the Yeas and Nays.

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.
