Joint Resolutions

Joint Resolutions in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-16) June Theresa Beaulieu Washburn, of Skowhegan, a longtime educator and a vital member of the community. After working as a substitute teacher, teaching adult education and teaching for a time at Erskine Academy, Dr. Washburn began teaching at Skowhegan High School in 1963. In 1967, she became the Business Department chairperson, a position she held until her retirement in 1993. A recipient of many academic honors and awards, she was invited in 1963 to join the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, an honor society for woman educators, serving as the DKG Xi Chapter president from 1984 to 1986, and she was in 1976 the first teacher to be named "Maine Business Education Teacher of the Year." She organized Region H for the Business Education Association of Maine and organized the Kennebec Valley Business Education League, and she served on several New England high school accreditation teams and on the committee that wrote the State of Maine Typewriting Curriculum Guide. She presented workshops for the Business Education Association of Maine and was a speaker at the National Business Education Convention, presenting two round table sessions. In 1992, she received her Ph.D. in Administration and Curriculum Development. In 1993, she served as the program session coordinator for the National Business Education Convention. She also worked a semester as an adjunct Professor at Thomas College. From 1993 to 1999, she served as a member of the School Administrative District #54 Board of Education. Dr. Washburn will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of 69 years, Richard, her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched;

HLS 494

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-17) Goff Richard French, of Smithfield. Mr. French worked as a civil engineer for the State of Maine. An avid runner and a member of track teams in high school and at the University of Maine at Orono, he served his community as an indoor track coach. He also served on the School Administrative District #54 Board of Directors for many years, was a member of the Smithfield Historical Society and was an active member and deacon at the Smithfield Baptist Church. Mr. French will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of over 49 years, Linda, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched;

HLS 495

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-18) Frank M. Dunbar, of Bucksport. Mr. Dunbar was a lifelong resident of Bucksport, where he was known by many as "Papa." He was a veteran of the United States Army, becoming an expert marksman and serving as a member of the rifle team. He later served as a firearms safety instructor in Maine. After his military service, he became a barber, working for 54 years and retiring in 2016. He also worked as an auctioneer and served as a notary public, performing weddings for generations of families. He served on the Bucksport Town Council, Economic Development Committee and Board of Assessment and also on the Maine Inland Fisheries and Wildlife Advisory Commission. He was a member of the Bucksport Rod and Gun Club and the Bucksport Historical Society, served as President of the Class of 1958 Alumni of Bucksport High School and served as Chaplain of American Legion Post 93. He was a member of the Belfast Nazarene Church and the Bucksport River of Hope Church. Having a passionate interest in veterans' affairs, he was a charter member of the Veterans' Memorial Committee and was instrumental in placing flags on veterans' graves. He received the Bucksport Bay Area Chamber of Commerce Business of the Year Award in 2009. Mr. Dunbar will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of over 62 years, Jacqueline, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched;

HLS 496

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-19) Richard Holbrook Grant, of Machias. Mr. Grant was a veteran of the United States Army, serving in the Finance Corps in the Philippines. He taught at Shead Memorial High School in Eastport, Sumner Memorial High School in Sullivan and the campus school at the University of Maine at Machias. He served as Superintendent of Schools in East Corinth, later becoming Superintendent of School Administrative District #37 in Harrington. After his retirement, he owned and operated the Holbrook Inn in Bar Harbor. Mr. Grant will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched;

HLS 501

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-20) Richard Farnsworth, Jr., of Kennebunk. In 1966, Mr. Farnsworth began teaching in the Sanford schools, teaching physical education and coaching various sports. In 1977, he joined the Kennebunk schools, where he was Cooperative Education Coordinator for 22 years, placing students with local businesses to learn valuable career skills and workplace habits, also serving as guidance counselor, until his retirement in 2006. He was named Maine Secondary Educator of the Year by the Maine Association of Directors of Services for Children with Exceptionalities during the 1990-1991 school year. He was a member of the Kennebunk Rotary Club beginning in 1979, serving as president in 1985 and 1986, and served as a board member of York County Federal Credit Union from 1978 to 2013. He was an active member of Church on the Cape in Cape Porpoise, serving on many boards, most recently sitting on its SPRC committee. In 1968, with his wife, Helen, and brother, David, he formed the band, "Straight Lace," entertaining generations throughout southern Maine. Mr. Farnsworth will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched;

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-21) Martha Hallisey-Swift, of Brunswick. Ms. Hallisey-Swift practiced public interest law for many years of service as an Assistant Attorney General in the Child Protective Division of the Office of the Maine Attorney General, working to bring safety and stability to countless children throughout her career. Ms. Hallisey-Swift will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched;

HLS 508

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-22) Douglas Denico, of Madison. Mr. Denico worked as a forester, retiring from Plum Creek. In 2011, he was appointed State Forester by Governor Paul LePage and also assumed the responsibility for Maine's public lands. Mr. Denico will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched;
