SUPPLEMENT NO. 20

PAPERS FROM THE HOUSE

Joint Orders

Expressions of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

(1-1) the Yarmouth High School Boys Tennis Team, which won the Class B State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

HLS 493

(1-2) Dory Waxman, of Portland, for her over forty-five years of public service. Mrs. Waxman, who started several successful businesses in the Portland area, served as a Portland School Committee member, Portland City Councilor and member of the City Charter Commission and chaired of several city committees. She also helped found, foster and support a neighborhood organization that continues to serve the needs and interests of all its residents. In 2015, she turned her woolen cape-making business into a nonprofit school, Common Threads of Maine, that has taught 180 new Mainers commercial sewing, helping them to attain gainful professional employment. We extend our appreciation and best wishes;

HLS 500

(1-3) the Nokomis High School Softball Team, of Newport, which won the 2023 Class B North Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

HLS 509

(1-4) Conor Morin, of Augusta, who won the Triple Jump Event at the New England Interscholastic Boys Outdoor Track and Field Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

HLS 511

(1-5) the Machias Memorial High School Softball Team, which won the Class D North Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

HLS 512

(1-6) Glenn Dochtermann, of Alfred, who has been named the Hunter Safety Instructor of the Year by the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife. Mr. Dochtermann has been an instructor in the Hunter, Bowhunter, Crossbow and Trapper Education programs since 1997. He has helped make significant strides in moving the hunter safety program forward in Southern Maine, particularly during the COVID-19 Pandemic. Under his leadership, he was able to keep a proficient team of 5 active instructors hosting and teaching 3 Hunter Safety Firearms classes and 2 Bowhunting classes certifying many new hunters. He has helped the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife secure locations for trainings and has spent countless hours assisting youth groups and recruiting new instructors. With over 50 years of teaching hunting safety courses and more than 4,000 students, Mr. Dochtermann continues to be an asset for the programs in southern Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

HLS 513

(1-7) the Falmouth High School Boys Tennis Team, which won the Class C State Championship. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

HLS 514

(1-8) Paul S. Burgess, of Wales, in whose honor the Town of Wales has dedicated and named its municipal center. It will now be known as the Town of Wales - Paul S. Burgess - Municipal Center. Mr. Burgess has served on the Wales Municipal Volunteer Fire Department since its inception in 1975. Still serving his community today on the fire department and working for the Public Works Department at 81 years of age, he is also in his 47th year on the Board of Selectmen. We extend our appreciation and best wishes;

HLS 518

(1-9) Timothy Leighton, of Wales, recipient of a Spirit of America Foundation Award. The Spirit of America Foundation was established to encourage and promote volunteerism, and the foundation presents awards to honor local individuals, organizations or projects in appreciation of community service. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

HLS 519

(1-10) Anthony R. Siderio, Sr., of Wales, on his retirement from the Wales Municipal Volunteer Fire Department after 40 years of service. Mr. Siderio began his service in 1983 at 14 years of age and has held every rank up to and including that of chief, a rank he held for 14 years. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

Joint Resolutions

Joint Resolutions in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-11) the Honorable Pamela Hatch, of Skowhegan. Ms. Hatch served 4 terms in the Maine House of Representatives, from 1992 to 2000, and a term in the Maine Senate, from 2002 to 2004. During her legislative service, she served on the aging, retirement and veterans committee, on the leaves of absence committee, on the criminal justice and public safety committee, on the joint select committee on joint rules and as chair of the labor and transportation committees. Ms. Hatch will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched;

HLS 501

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-12) Anna Culter, of Dixmont. Mrs. Culter taught for years in Saco schools and later at Loranger Middle School in Old Orchard Beach, where she was recognized for her exceptional compassion and resilience as a Life Skills teacher. Mrs. Culter will be long remembered and sadly missed by her husband of more than 60 years, Howard, her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched;

HLS 502

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-13) Guy Perron, of Bangor. Mr. Perron was raised in Laval, Quebec, where he developed a love of all sports, especially hockey, baseball and tennis. In 1983 at 17 years of age, he left home to play for the Cegep league team in St.-Jerome, Les Cheminots. In 1986, he was recruited to play at the University of Maine, where he ranks 18th on the career scoring list and was a 2-year captain. Between 1986 and 1990, he amassed 62 goals and 84 assists to help the Black Bears make 4 NCAA Tournament appearances. In 1989, he was presented Maine's Most Popular Player award. After his time as a student-athlete, he traveled to Stockholm, Sweden, where he played one year for the Vasby IK Hockey Club. Returning to Maine, he became a graduate assistant hockey coach at UMaine. In 1992, he became head coach of the Bangor High School hockey team, and he was named Coach of the Year in 1993. In 1995, he became the assistant coach for the men's hockey team at Dartmouth College. In 1997, he moved to Chicago, Illinois, where he took on the role of general manager and head coach of the Chicago Freeze Junior A hockey team. Returning to Maine in 2003, he coached the UMaine women's hockey team for 2 years. Between 2008 and 2014, he served as a scout for the National Hockey League's Colorado Avalanche. In 2014, he became an employee of W.S. Emerson. Always involved in community activities and volunteer opportunities, he coached his sons on numerous Maine Junior Black Bear teams and volunteered for Bangor West Little League for over a decade. Mr. Perron will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of nearly 30 years, Renee, his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched;

HLS 510

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-14) the Honorable Herbert E. Clark, of Millinocket. Mr. Clark was a military veteran who served in Vietnam. He worked nearly 42 years at Great Northern Paper and served 12 terms in the Maine House of Representatives, serving from the 110th Legislature to the 117th Legislature, 1981 to 1996, and from the 122nd Legislature to the 125th Legislature, 2005 to 2012. He was a past chair and board member of Katahdin Federal Credit Union board of directors and a past chair and member of the Millinocket Town Council. He was a past Grand Knight and a 4th Degree Knight of Columbus with Council #680. He was a board member of Maine Avenue Manor and a past board member of Millinocket Regional Hospital. He was a member of the Cancer Support Group, American Legion Post #80, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans and Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Lodge #1514. Mr. Clark will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family and friends and all those whose lives he touched;
